IN THE BEE TO-DAY

U. S. Department of Agriculture,
Weather Bureau,
Toledo, O., May 12, 1892.

The area of high pressure has advanced eastward and is central over northeastern Minnesota. The weather is generally cloudy with fresh north to northwest winds throughout the lake region and slightly lower temperature than Wednesday. An area of low pressure is central in the southwest and is causing cloudy weather, and rain, and generally easterly winds in the region west of the Mississippi river. The area of high pressure will move east and dominate the weather throughout the lake region, causing cloudy weather with probably a light shower or two in this vicinity and slightly cooler.

Friday the area of low pressure will have advanced sufficiently east to cause rain and rising temperature in this vicinity.

One in seven of all deaths comes from Consumption. That's about the proportion. And almost every death from Consumption comes from neglect and delay. There's neglect in preventing the disease—delay in curing it.

You can prevent it—and cure it, if you'll act in time, with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Poor and impure blood makes you an easy victim—a scrofulous condition of the system invites it.

You must reach the disease through the blood, and the "Discovery" does it. It's the most potent and effective blood-cleanser, strength-restorer, and flesh-builder that's known to medical science. The scrofulous affection of the lungs that's called Consumption, and every form of scrofula and blood-taints, all yield to it. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all severe, lingering Coughs, it's an unequaled remedy.

And it's the only one that's guaranteed to do what is claimed for it. If it fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

TURN ON THE LIGHT

Investigation Into the Census Bureau

Has Commenced at Washington,

And Much of Interest Will be Heard.

Republicans Try to Block the Wheels,

And Prevent the People of the Country from Knowing How and Where the Money Was Spent by Porter.

Washington, May 12.—The sub-committee of the house committee on the eleventh census appointed to investigate the charges contained in the resolution of Representative Alderson, in substance that the census bureau has been wrongfully conducted under the management of Superintendent Porter, began its sessions to-day.

Representative Taylor, a member of the committee, after hearing the resolution read, offered a resolution providing that "all charges which are to be investigated by this committee, shall, with the specifications relating thereto, be presented in writing, signed by some reliable person, and a copy of the same shall in all cases be given to the person against whom the charge is made.

In support of the resolution Mr. Taylor discussed certain charges in the resolution of inquiry, one being that the bureau had been wrongfully conducted in the state of New York.

This, he said, was too general; too wide; and as to the charge that the bureau had been conducted in the interest of partisan politics and the fund appropriated was wantonly wasted, where and how had it been done?

Mr. Taylor said it seemed to him that the committee should go at the matter in a business-like way. The men who make the charges should present them in some specific manner so that the committee could come at the point. The committee should not sit and waste time. Persons who had charges to present should come forward and do so. Investigations, he said, were generally a waste of time.

Representative Bentley said the house had imposed a burden upon the committee to inquire into the matter and he also submitted that it would be a gross injustice to the interior department, to Supt. Porter and his associates, to have the matter dismissed in this sort of way.

Representative Fithian said that the authority of the committee in the matter was set forth by the house and if the charges were not specific enough it was the fault of the house, and not of the committee. He thought the charges were specific enough and he wanted to have a fair and impartial investigation.

In regard to the reports that certain members were under obligation to the census bureau by reason of having constituents in that bureau, Mr. Fithian said that he did not have such a person in the bureau and if he did the fact would have no bearing on the investigation.

Mr. Fithian said he thought that the charge that the funds appropriated were wantonly wasted was a specific charge and that the position taken by Mr. Taylor was untenable. The resolution was lost by a vote of 2 to 2.

Representative Rayburn related to the committee several facts in regard to the loose manner in which the Philadelphia census was accomplished.

He said, in regard to the manufacturing statistics in Philadelphia, that there was an entire lack of system, and that when he asked the department for an investigation there was no disposition to allow it, or act as sensible and practical men should.

Instead of trying to meet the charges the bureau would send out men as special agents who drew high salaries, when the matter could have been done in the regular channel. After two or three years, several of the census agents in Philadelphia had been arrested for abuses charged. One was arrested yesterday.

He then told of the manner in which the man in charge of manufacturing statistics was appointed to the position. His name was Thompson. Mr. Rayburn said he had a talk with Supt. Porter about a person for the place and several parties were named, but for various reasons were not accepted and Thompson was appointed.

Mr. Rayburn said he afterwards found that the man at the head of this work in Philadelphia was to be a figurehead, perform his duties in a perfunctory manner and the department was to have the work done under its direct supervision by sending a man out from Washington to do the work. His name, he thought, was Kaiser.

When the department found that Thompson was going at the work in earnest they raised a wind. Mr. Rayburn said he did not think the department wanted a thorough or exhaustive census of Philadelphia, and he had not a particle of confidence in the census. He said the department spent a lot of money in using its special agents to try and learn something crooked about poor devils without any friends.

He cited a case of an enumerator who died in a Philadelphia alms house of pneumonia, and his wife died the next day, the department withholding a pittance due him which would probably have helped the man in saving his life.

Mr. Rayburn said that these people charged would say that the reason for withholding the money from persons was because they were investigating charges against them and were waiting for a result. He concluded his remarks by saying that Thompson would appear before the committee. The committee adjourned until Thursday.

BOILERMAKERS' CONVENTION.

Columbus, O., May 12.—The convention of National Brotherhood of Boilermakers resolved to refuse to work with non-union helpers in shops where National Brotherhood of Boilermakers exists, and to encourage organization of helpers.

No member shall be allowed to do steam tightening, or any part of boilermaking at less than standard boilermakers' wages. A committee was appointed to consider an invitation by President Penton of Detroit to have the Brotherhood become members of the International Federation of Machinery Trades.

POSTAL AFFAIRS.

Washington, May 12.—Ohio postmasters appointed to-day: McDonaldsville, Stark county, J. Hane, vice S. C. Schreiner, resigned; Milfordton, Knox county, W. B. Burgess, vice J. C. Rine, resigned.

New postoffices have been established at Yarlo, Geauga county, W. R. Jordan, postmaster, and Anvil, Belmont county, Irene H. Henry, postmistress.

SECRETARY FOSTER FISHING.

Washington, May 12.—Secretary Foster has gone fishing with two friends. They will be guests of the Woodmont Fishing club, whose quarters are located on the Potomac some distance above Harper's Ferry. The secretary is after black bass and he will spend two or three days catching them, or at least trying to.

RECORD BREAKING.

Upper Sandusky, O., May 12.—Yesterday Eunice Patchett was granted a divorce from Daniel Patchett. Within six hours the latter had secured a permit from Probate Judge Berry to marry Miss Dora Hickman, and this morning a similar permit was secured by A. J. Freet to marry Mrs. Patchett.

THE BRYAN MURDER.

More Evidence Gathered Each Day.

What Some of the Witnesses Will Testify to When the Trial is Called.

Bryan, O., May 12.—The house occupied by the Birchel brothers, who are charged with the murder of Brown, has been searched, and a blood-stained overcoat, pair of shoes and pants were found in addition to the bloody clothing found hidden in the haymow of the barn a couple of days ago. More witnesses have been found whose testimony helps to complete the strong chain of circumstantial evidence which is being woven about George and Mike Birchel.

In an interview George Birchel said the blood on his clothing would be accounted for at the trial, as he was down at Stryker two weeks before the murder and was cut above the eye by the marshal of the town. He also said that on the night of the murder he and his brother Mike went home together and found their brother Richard sitting by the fire reading a book.

In an interview Mike said he and George went home together that night, but Richard was not there and he did not know where he was. His mother was not well and he built a fire to warm up the room for her.

Among the witnesses to be called at the trial are several who saw the Birchels with Brown during the night at various places.

The keeper of the livery stable near where the murder took place saw George Birchel and Brown go down the alley together and George had something under his coat.

A girl who lives near saw Brown in the company of the Birchels. She also heard the words, "Give him some more, Marks." "Marks" is a nickname by which Mike Birchel has been known to his brothers and intimates, according to the testimony of several witnesses.

In connection with the finding of two broken and bloody beer bottles near the murdered man, one witness will testify that George Birchel bought two bottles of beer that night and did not return the bottles.

FOURTH OHIO DEMOCRATS.

Sidney, O., May 12.—(Special)—George W. Hull, of Lima, and J. K. Cummins, of Sidney, were selected as district delegates to the national convention at Chicago and A. J. Kepner, of Darke, and D. A. Clark, of Auglaize, as alternates. W. Loree was chosen presidential elector.

HE MUST DO TIME

The Hon. Patrick Greville Nugent,

Brother of Lord Greville, Pleads Guilty,

And Receives His Sentence Calmly.

All London Shocked by the Occurrence,

But the Guilty Man Must Go to Jail for Six Months and Pay the Penalty of His Crime.

London, May 12.—At the North London sessions to-day the Hon. Patrick Greville Nugent, brother of Lord Greville, and deputy lieutenant of the county of West Meath, Ireland, pleaded guilty to a common assault on Miss Marion Price, the charge of felonious assault not being pressed.

The plea was accepted by the court and Nugent was sentenced to six months' imprisonment with hard labor.

The result of the case created a great sensation and Mrs. Nugent is said to be prostrated by the social ruin which her husband's action has brought upon him.

Nugent was advised to plead guilty by his counsel, Mr. Gill, the celebrated lawyer, who had ascertained, after careful inquiry, that there was no way of impeaching the character of the testimony of Miss Price.

The father of Miss Price, a respectable and well-to-do business man, had been greatly excited by the earl's attempt to establish blackmail, and was determined that Nugent should be punished. In addition to imprisonment Nugent was ordered to pay the costs of the plaintiff.

The assault occurred in the compartment of a railway carriage on the London & Brighton railway, on the evening of bank holiday. The complainant was Miss Marion Price, of Eckstein Road, Clapham Junction. All the parties are highly connected socially and the affair has created the greatest of excitement.

THE LOG OF THE LAKES

Chicago Vesselmen Continue to Object

Because the Syndicate Got the Fair Trade.

Customs Regulations—All the Marine News of the Day—General and Local Mention.

Chicago, May 12.—(Special Marine Service.)—Protests of the Lake Line Agents' association against the construction of a bridge across the St. Lawrence river, near Brockville, where it would be a serious obstruction to navigation, has received prompt attention of Chicago congressmen. Congressman Durburow says he does not think that the bill will pass. The lake interest generally has protested against the bill.

All Cooked and Dried.

Messrs. Higginbotham and Ripley, the special committee of the World's fair directors, at a meeting with the Henry syndicate yesterday afternoon arranged all the details and the contract for th ecarrying of passengers by lake to the World's fair grounds was signed by both parties and each took a copy. The contract gives the Henry syndicate the exclusive right to land passengers from steamboats at the World's fair pier or landing at Jackson park.

The syndicate intends to take passengers from landings at Konosha, Lincoln park, and various points at Chicago to Jackson park. But the World's fair directors, of course, have no control over landings at any other places except Jackson park.

Mr. Dumont, supervising general of steamboats, has been given sixty days leave of absence, during which he will visit Europe. George H. Starbuck of New York city, will act in his place during his absence. By his communications in various lake papes, Mr. Dumont has mixed up the latest rulings in regard to the painting of names on the bows of vessels. Chicago customs officials said yesterday that no attention should be paid to the statements recently made. Steamers and sailing vessels and all craft must have their names on each bow, as well as elsewhere.

The Chicago customs officials do not recognize Escanaba as an intermediate port between Chicago and any port on Lake Erie, and will not issue through clearances. Milwaukee issues clearances to Ashtabula and other Lake Erie ports for steamers which load iron ore at Escanaba, but the Chicago officials do not understand this as a correct interpretation of the law. Milwaukee is very anxious to get credit for her own receipts and shipments, and yet refuses Escanaba her rights. The bill in congress to compel vessels and steamers to report and clear at every port touched at is in the interest of Milwaukee, Detroit, Toledo and Cleveland, as steamers from Chicago to Buffalo, and vice versa, discharge and take on freight at the intermediate ports, and they get no credit for receipts and shipments.

Vessel masters are kicking with both feet because they cannot get into the barge office until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. They urge that these hours are especially bad for them on Sunday, the custom house proper not being open at all on that day.

Masters of craft arriving in the night complain that the Chicago lights are all alike, and at about the same altitude and that one cannot be distinguished from another. The complaint of the master of the steamer Tacoma is the latest. The attention of the light house board is to be called to this question of Chicago lights, the main light and the southern lights on the breakwater, to the end that they may be distinguished one from another, and from the lights on the various excursion boats, and lights ashore. The work on the new lighthouse at the southeast end of the outer breakwater is to be pushed forward as soon as the weather settles.

A great crib for the foundation was sunk last season. Collector Clark, Col. Loomis and others interested are in communication with the New York Steam Yacht club, and arrangements will be perfected for the annual review of the New York squadron in 1893, to take place on Lake Michigan off Chicago. The steamers can all get up through the Canadian canals to the lakes.

Died During the Storm.

Duluth, Minn., May 12.—The tug Carrington came into port yesterday towing a small boat at the bottom of which was a dead fisherman. The boat left Two Harbors several days ago with three fishermen on board and it is presumed was caught in the heavy northeaster prevailing the following day. The other two must have been lost overboard or washed out after perishing from exposure.

Duluth Rates.

Duluth, May 12.—Shippers are offering only 3 cents for boats to load wheat for Buffalo next week. Vesselmen refuse it.

Peterson Released.

Cheboygan, May 12.—The schooner Annie M. Peterson was released from Poe's Reef last night; and was towed into harbor. She is now reloading coal that was lightered off. She will tow to Chicago with steam pump on board.

The Lyons and Grover.

Sand Beach, May 12.—So far as can be seen the steamer John B. Lyons is resting easily. She is full of water and her cargo will be nearly a total loss.

The schooner Annie P. Grover, ashore at Aux Barques, is leaking some, caused by the heavy seas.

LOCAL MARINE NEWS.

The Hadley leaves Ashland to-day with ore for Cleveland.

The tug Spinney is being raised by the saudsucker Commerce to-day.

The Panther and consort, Massasoit, are loading coal at Cleveland for Ashland.

It is understood that Dewey & Co. will run a boat this year between Toledo and Monroe.

The schooner Penokee goes on the dry dock at Gilmore's to-morrow to have a leak stopped.

The Maumee Valley is on the dry dock getting a new stern, new stem and other necessary repairs.

The tug Roy left this morning for Lake Huron with the coal laden schooners Leighton, Hartford and Schutte.

DAMAGED BY THE STORM

A Cyclone Roamed Around Millersburg.

Houses Unroofed and Orchards Torn Out by the Roots—Heavy Rain Fall.

Millersburg, O., May 12.—The citizens of this county have frequently read in the past of the western cyclone, but were never treated to one until Tuesday night.

About 7 o'clock the usual funnel-shaped cloud darted down in the west end of the county and traveled in a northeast direction.

The path of the storm was about 10 miles long and about one-half mile wide.

It first tore the roof from the barn of Martin Negelspach and thence to the farm of Oscar Korns, and his barn was also badly damaged.

The farm residence of Wm. Kidd was badly damaged, roof torn off, and outbuildings demolished.

A dwelling occupied by Wm. Summney, on the farm of James Smith, was completely unrooted and the family narrowly escaped being killed.

A fine apple orchard was completely torn up and twisted and not a tree left standing. The roof was torn off the home of Philip Kid, and a new building, 18x36 feet, just erected, was blown across the road.

A large number of other farmers in the storm's path suffer losses of outbuildings, fences, growing crops, etc., and there is not a fruit tree of any description left. The loss cannot be estimated, but will be great.

A Flood at Canton.

Canton, O., May 12.—One of the heaviest storms that ever visited this city burst upon it Tuesday. The rain fell in torrents and the vivid flashes of lightning lighted up the heavens with an unusual brilliancy. Streets were flooded and basements and cellars were filled, that of the Troy laundry and the steps in front of the building being entirely washed away. The excavating of the public building and for a business block at the corner of Cleveland avenue and Eighth street were also filled with water. The storm came with such fury that catch basins were clogged and it was not until the storm ceased that men could be put to work to clear away the debris. The Walnut street sewer could not begin to carry away the water and the overflowing of the street was the result. Schrever's Run, which flows through the city, overflowed its banks and much damage was done. It is impossible to calculate the loss.

HEIDELBERG GRADUATES.

Tiffin, O., May 12.—(Special)—The annual commencement exercises of Heidelberg Theological seminary occurred in the university chapel last evening. There were but three graduates, and their names and subjects of their theses were as follows: J. D. Buhrer, Cleveland, "Origin of the Pentateuch;" T. H. Sonnedecker, Tiffin, "The Conquest of Ages;" Parley F. Zartman, Sioux City, Ia., "The Theology of Practice."

RAILROAD DISASTERS.

Tiffin, O., May 12.—Two Baltimore & Ohio freight engines collided in this city and both locomotives were quite badly damaged, the pilots being demolished and cylinder heads blown out.

A Baltimore & Ohio flyer ran into a herd of sheep belonging to William Young, east of this city, yesterday morning, killing 25 sheep and injuring many others.

Charley Robison, aged 14, and a companion, left their home at Akron to go west and kill Indians, but got hungry and returned.

OHIO HOMEOPATHISTS.

Dr. M. H. Parmalee, of Toledo, Elected President.

Cincinnati, May 12.—The Homeopathic Medical society has adjourned to meet in Toledo next year.

The following officers were elected: President, Dr. M. H. Parmalee, of Toledo; vice-presidents, first, Dr. H. B. Van Norman, Cleveland; second, Dr. S. R. Geiser, Cincinnati; secretary, Thos. M. Stewart, M. D., Cincinnati; assistant secretary, A. C. Roll, Toledo; treasurer, R. B. House, Springfield, O.; necrologist, D. H. Beckwith, M. D., Cleveland; censors, Albert Claypool, M. D., chairman, Toledo; John A. Gann, M. D., Wooster; N. E. Wright, M. D., Berea; Stella Hunt, M. D., Cincinnati; Martha A. Canfield, M. D., Cleveland; F. C. Steingraver, M. D., Bluffton; G. D. Grant, M. D., Springfield.

The Great Memphis Bridge Dedicated.

The West and the South Join Hands

And Rejoice of the Structure Which Cost Three Millions and Contains 9,000 Tons of Steel.

Memphis, Tenn., May 12.—This is the great day of the festivities in connection with the dedication of he bridge across the Mississippi and the town is crowded as it has never been crowded before.

The exercises of the day opened with a parade, the first division being composed of visiting and home military companies, Knights of Pythias, Knights of Innisfail, and other secret societies and friendly and benevolent associations, the members of the German maifest, the fire department, displays of local industries, and the attaches of the municipal departments and distinguished visitors bringing up the rear.

The procession moved through the principal streets of the city and halted at the bridge, and while Governors Buchanan, of Tennessee, and Eagle, of Arkansas, clasped hands in the center of the bridge president Lucas B. Clapp, of the taxing district of Memphis, placed his hands upon their heads and declared the union of the great west and the great east, and cannon boomed from the river and the the great multitudes on shore made the air quiver with cheers for southern energy and enterprise.

The oration was delivered by Senator Dan Voorhees, of Indiana. The length of the bridge and its approach from Arkansas to Tennessee is three miles. It is in five spans, is built on the cantilever principle, 9,000 tons of steel have been used in its construction, and its cost has been over $3,000,000.

A PLUCKY MARSHAL

Met Death in the Line of His Duty.

Single Handed He Attacks Four Bank Burglars and Is Killed in the Attempt.

Nashville, Tenn., May 12.—A special to the American from Toccoa, Ga., says: Marshal Carter, of Toccoa, discovered four negroes drilling into the Toccoa National bank's vault. Alone he entered the building contemplating the capture of the gang, but the instant he stepped through the door he was discovered and a desperate fight ensued. It was four against one.

In the morning the first Toccoa citizen out discovered the dead marshal just outside the bank door. At first the dead man was a mystery, but when the bank door was found open and the tampered vault was discovered the mystery grew less deep.

Beside the body of the dead marshal were footprints that led to the railroad, and in a box car was found the bloody pieces of steel with which the marshal's head had been crushed in. From the car, tracks led to Jim Redman's house. Redman was arrested, and after an interview with the officers, Will Bruce, Gus Roberts and Bob Anderson, all negroes, were pulled in. The evidence before the coroner's jury shows that the four negroes are responsible for the marshal's death and the safe blowing. It is feared that they will be quickly dealt with.

HIS OPINION ON SILVER

Minister Coolidge Rises to Remark.

Senator Teller Accused Him Wrongfully In His Recent Interview.

New York, May 12.—A Boston special to the Times gives an interview with T. Jefferson Coolidge, the nominee for minister to France, in regard to the statement made by Senator Teller, in which the latter said: "To send a man on record against free coinage to a bi-metallic country would be almost an insult to that country."

Mr. Coolidge declared emphatically that that was a false statement. He said:

"I am a bi-metallist. What I am not is a monometallist—a silver metallist.

"A free silver man would not be a proper man to send to France. France is a bi-metal country. It no longer coins silver, but, as we do, maintains its silver currency at the cost of gold.

"I doubt if the senator will refuse to confirm the nomination of a man because he takes the same grounds on the silver question that all the east does."

IN THE EIGHTH OHIO.

Fremont Arford Named for Congress.

Claude Meeker on Deck Putting in Sturdy Blows for Ex-Governor Campbell.

Kenton, O., May 12.—(Special)—The democratic convention for the Eighth congressional district was held in this city to-day and was attended by large delegations from every county in this district.

The principal interest centering in the selection of delegates to the Chicago convention.

Fremont Arford, of Findlay, a well-known newspaper man, was nominated for congress by acclamation, but as the district is republican by a majority of 4,000, Fremont will not likely be bothered in warming a seat at Washington.

Claud Meeker is here in the interest of the presidential aspirations of ex-Gov. Campbell, and it is thought that Campbell delegates will be chosen.

However, the fight will be warm and the result will not be reached until a late hour.

Strong opposition is manifested to the proposed third nomination of Judge Beer at the circuit judicial ocuvention in Lima, June 8, and the assurance is given that several candidates will be placed in nomination.

IT HAS BEEN DEDICATED

A Splendid Home for Union Printers.

G. W. Childs the Hero of the Day.

Speeches Made and the Occasion Made One Long to be Remembered by the Typos.

Colorado Springs, May 12.—In the presence of representative printers from many distant points of the country, reinforced by the editors and publishers who compose the National Editorial association, and with the recognition of the state of Colorado in the person of its chief executive, the Childs-Drexel home for union printers, the first institution of the kind to be established in the world, was formally dedicated to-day.

The weather was in harmony with the event. The town had put on its best bib and tucker for the occasion, and the morning trains brought big crowds from Denver, Pueblo and other points to aid in making it a gala occasion.

Over the imposing structure floated the stars and stripes, the gift of the union printers of Houston, Tex., while inside the various apartments were fragrant with flowers contributed by the ladies of Colorado Springs and Denver.

The exercises were inaugurated in the assembly chapel with prayer by Rev. James B. Gregg, after which an adjournment was taken to the main entrance of the building and before which an immense throng had gathered.

To the right of the chair was Mr. Geo. W. Childs, to the left the board of trustees of the International Typographical union, and directly in front the members of the National Editorial association with their ladies.

Gov. John L. Routt spoke the address of welcome on behalf of the people of the state of Colorado, Mayor Ira T. Sprague followed, on behalf of the citizens of Colorado Springs, and Hon. Henry G. Lunt, president of the chamber of commerce, expressed the welcome and good will of the business community. All three speakers were loudly applauded.

A happy response was made by President W. B. Prescott, of the International Typographical union, and after music, a history of the home was read by August Donath, of Washington, D. C., president of the board of trustees.

The oration was delivered by Senator J. H. Gallinger, of New Hampshire, who landed the union printers of the country, and heaped eulogies upon Mr. Childs and Mr. Anthony J. Drexel.

The oration, which was a masterly effort, was followed by an address by W. P. Cappeller, president of the National Editorial association, and after the Star Spangled Banner had been rendered by a quartet the benediction was pronounced.

This afternoon the visitors were handsomely entertained by the citizens. The typographical unions of many cities are represented by delegations at the exercises.

The first step toward the establishment of the enterprise dedicated to-day was taken at the annual convention of the International Typographical union at Pittsburg, in 1886, when that body was the recipient of a check for $10,000, given jointly by Mr. Childs and Mr. Drexel, the gift being absolutely without condition.

At the Denver convention of 1889 it was decided to use the fund in question as a nucleus for the establishment of a home for aged and infirm printers, and shortly after a plat of 80 acres of land lying one mile east of Colorado Springs was offered to the union and accepted.

Since 1886 all union printers have yearly contributed the price of setting up 1,000 ems to the fund, the printers west of the Mississippi river making their contributions in honor of Mr. Child's birthday, on May 12, upon which anniversary the building was dedicated.

It is an imposing structure, standing on an eminence overlooking the city, and is built of gray lava stone, its total cost exceeding $60,000. Several of the rooms have been furnished by the larger unions, that of California taking the lead. Another room has been furnished by H. H. Kohlsaat, of the Chicago Inter-Ocean.

GOVERNOR CAMPBELL.

He Talks on the Boom in His Favor.

About the Only Certain Thing in Sight is That Harrison Will be Defeated.

Springfield, O., May 12.—Ex-Gov. James E. Campbell passed through the city en route to Cincinnati. In a brief interview the ex-governor was asked if he had any definite knowledge of the published rumors of ex-President Cleveland's having in preparation a letter of withdrawal from the struggle to secure the nomination for the presidency at Chicago and throwing his strength to Campbell. "I have no inkling of the matter," said he, "except what has appeared in the newspapers, but (laughingly) I am always thankful for small favors."

Continuing, the ex-governor said it was difficult to tell who would be the democratic nominee at Chicago, but he said the chances for the nominee being triumphantly elected were brighter every day. He thought Harrison's chances for the nomination were less hopeful than a few days ago, as the opposition was becoming aggressive and powerful.

ROSWELL P. FLOWER.

He Has Stuck Up a Presidential Rod.

Friends Trying to Substitute Him for Cleveland and Hill and Whoop It Up.

New York, May 12.—Daniel G. Griffin, a Watertown, N. Y., lawyer, is a neighbor there of Gov. Flower. He made the speech nominating him and was placed on the democratic state committee as the governor's representative.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Griffin had a long conference with Grover Cleveland in the ex-president's office in the Mills building. It was said that this conference was arranged by Mr. Flower to learn how Mr. Cleveland felt toward him as a candidate in case Mr. Cleveland could not get the nomination himself.

Mr. Flower's friends are arguing that as both the Cleveland and the Hill factions came together last fall to elect him governor, they could be induced to do so again to nominate him for president.

It could not be learned from Mr. Griffin whether or not the meeting between him and the ex-president resulted satisfactorily. The two men left the Mills building later in the afternoon and started up town together.

HAPPY WEDDING.

Lima, O., May 12.—The wedding of Samuel Winfield of Appleton, Wis., and Yetta Frankel of this city, last evening at 5 o'clock, was a brilliant one, guests being present from Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Madison and Appleton, Wis. After a bridal tour of the principal cities Mr. and Mrs. Winfield will locate at Appleton.

CONSTERNATION!

Of Medical Humbugs Because of the Opportunity to Obtain Genuine Skill at Low Rates.

"Ah, Figaro, thou hast drawn blood!"

Two important facts have been developed since the advent of Drs. Copeland and Bell in this city. The first is the tremendous success they have met with and the second is the hostility they have aroused among the catch-as-catch-can doctors of Toledo.

Both are highly flattering. The success so far has been phenomenal. That this should arouse the ire of pretenders and servile imitators is natural, since it means a death-knell to them. It shows that the people of Toledo are quick to seize the opportunity afforded by Drs. Copeland and Bell, and to avail themselves of the offer of high professional medical ability at a moderate cost.

"Nothing Succeeds Like Success."
"Let the galled jade wince."

Out of the abundance of their success, out of the measure of their satisfaction, Drs. Copeland and Bell can congratulate the people and smile at the mouthings of the green-hued fakirs, who find destruction before their business now that the people have a chance to obtain treatment from specialists who understand the disease they treat as an electrician understands the control and operation of electricity.

In every community where the Copeland Medical Institute has been opened, fakirs and bunco men who have operated under the cloak of medical practitioners have been obliged to close up their offices.

The Copeland physicians strike down humbuggery and place the practice of truthful, straightforward, genuine and unassailable medical advertising in the highest public esteem.

FEAR!

Causes the Conspiracies and Malicious Falsehoods of Frauds and Quacks

Who See Their Brethren One by One Driven From the Community

And Begin to Realize That a Similar Fate Awaits Them—The Days of the Unmentionable Medical Fraud Numbered—A Little Plain and Wholesome Talk.

It was supposed that the action of Drs. Copeland and Bell, in placing their medicines and treatment for all patients and for all diseases at the merely nominal rate of $5 per month, would awaken the malicious opposition of those unblushing frauds and fakirs who are still allowed to thrive in this community.

Two of their kind have already been driven from the town, but one of those who yet remain, realizing from the experience of his brethren the fate which is in store for him, yelps out in falsehood and malice the fear and anxiety in his heart.

Let his yelp go for what it merits. The position of Drs. Copeland and Bell is unassailable. Thoroughly competent, thoroughly qualified and thoroughly skilled physicians and specialists, their business is with the public, and their work is to cure diseases. Whatever interferes with that work or whatever reflects upon their fitness to perform it, will be met quite as forcible as the occasion may demand. Drs. Copeland and Bell have fought frauds and fakirs before. They are quite ready to fight them at any time. They are proud of the class of enemies they make. They ask no further evidence of the merit of their course than the malignant opposition of an insolent humbug whose printed statements are the best evidence of the fraudulent character of his business. A man, masquerading under the disguise of an "European Specialist," and carrying in his newspaper statements all the infamous, unclean conglomeration of the typical American quack, is the most desirable kind of an enemy whom Drs. Copeland and Bell could wish to find. They will be blessed by the public for the kind of an enemy they have made.

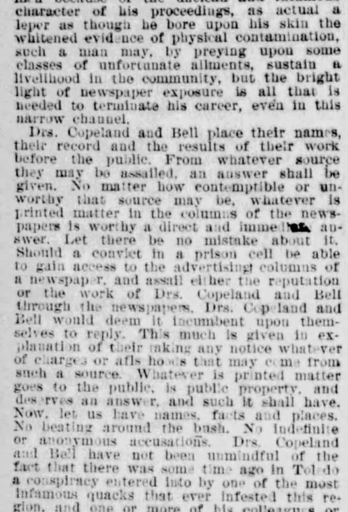
Isolated and alone, shunned by his fellowmen because of the unclean and infamous character of his proceedings, as actual a leper as though he bore upon his skin the whitened evidence of physical contamination, such a man may, by preying upon some classes of unfortunate ailments, sustain a livelihood in the community, but the bright light of newspaper exposure is all that is needed to terminate his career, even in this narrow channel.

Drs. Copeland and Bell place their names, their record and the results of their work before the public. From whatever source they may be assailed, an answer shall be given. No matter how contemptible or unworthy that source may be, whatever is printed matter in the columns of the newspapers is worthy a direct and immediate answer. Let there be no mistake about it. Should a convict in a prison cell be able to gain access to the advertising columns of a newspaper, and assail either the reputation or the work of Drs. Copeland and Bell through the newspapers, Drs. Copeland and Bell would deem it incumbent upon themselves to reply. This much is given in explanation of their taking any notice whatever of charges or affidavits that may come from such a source. Whatever is printed matter goes to the public, is public property, and deserves an answer, and such it shall have. Now, let us have names, facts and places. No beating around the bush. No indefinite or anonymous accusations. Drs. Copeland and Bell have not been unmindful of the fact that there was some time ago in Toledo a conspiracy entered into by one of the most infamous quacks that ever infested this region, and one or more of his colleagues or associates, to injure Dr. Copeland and his works in this community. Drs. Copeland and Bell know very well the details of that conspiracy, and the animus that caused it, and the fear that inspired it, but the methods which prevailed in it shall no longer obtain. The public shall have facts, names and places. There has been too much skulking around the bush. Let it be war to the knife now, and let us see who is the actual friend and benefactor of the public, and who the unmitigated quack, fraud and humbug in this community.

AFTER MANY YEARS OF PAIN AND SUFFERING.

A Toledo Lady Tells What Has Been Accomplished for Her by Drs. Copeland and Bell, After Other Physicians.

"When I came to the offices of Drs. Copeland and Bell I had been a sufferer for over 12 years." This was the remark of Mrs. Kate Green, who resides at 2926 Chase street. Continuing she said: "I coughed incessantly. My throat was always raw and sore with a tickling sensation in my throat that kept me awake nights. My head felt dull and ached nearly all the time. I had severe pains through my chest and sides, especially if I caught a slight cold. The disease had encroached upon my stomach and nearly destroyed my digestive organs. I had no appetite and what little I did eat caused me great distress. I lost flesh and strength gradually and finally the doctors gave me up to die. After placing myself under the care of Drs. Copeland and Bell I realized at this time that they thoroughly understood my symptoms and the remedies to be applied to them. Since taking their treatment my cough has disappeared. No sore throat or tickling sensation. No pain in chest or sides. I eat well, sleep well, and feel that I am on the high road to complete health and have every confidence and faith in the science and skill of these gentlemen."



Mrs. Kate Green, 2926 Chase Street.

EXTENDING THE SERIES.

Pertinent Testimony by Mr. John Young. He Searched for Twelve Years.

Mr. John Young of 551 Erie street, in a conversation with a reporter gives his experience with a common disease, and the ordinary methods of attempting to obtain relief. These statements from people living in our midst all pointing to the same facts mean something. The principal facts emphasized in the whole series is the inefficiency of the ordinary treatment for Catarrh and the certainty with which cures are effected by the mild, systematic, painless, methods of the modern specialist.

Mr. Young related his experience as follows:

"About 12 years ago I contracted a severe cold. Before I recovered from it I had another. They then kept coming, one after the other, until I was never free from them. I realized that chronic catarrh had a hold on me. My head and throat were all closed up. I kept blowing and spitting. The mucous was constantly dripping in my throat, and kept it feeling thick and raspy. Every time the weather changed I had a sore throat. The glands of the throat were sore. There always seemed to be something in my throat I could get neither up nor down.

"I then began to have blinding headaches across over my eyes and through my temples. When the disease and soreness began to extend to my chest, it seemed as though I could endure it no longer. I became weak and nervous. My chest became so sore that I could bear no pressure on it. Then, too, terribly severe pains took me through the chest back through under the shoulder blades. At night I had suffocating spells; there was a feeling of tightness across my chest. I was so nervous and suffered so much I could not sleep at all. I would read for hours to try to get sleepy but to no avail. I could not sleep an hour at a time. In the morning I was tired and exhausted.

"Of course I tried to get relief, but until lately failed entirely. The doctors I saw all gave different opinions of my case. Some said it was bronchitis, others did not seem to know what it was. They gave me a little medicine which did me no good. I had become completely discouraged and had come to the conclusion there was no cure for troubles like mine.

"Finally, however, I decided to try Drs. Copeland and Bell as their charges were light and the statements published I knew to be genuine.

"I began to improve in a short time. My nose and throat became clear. The headache disappeared. The soreness in my chest and pains vanished. I sleep well and get up refreshed in the morning. My throat improved wonderfully. I have gained in strength, and feel in every way like a new man. No one can realize what a relief it is to feel well after suffering 12 long years. I am truly grateful to Drs. Copeland and Bell, and would recommend them as skillful specialists in the treatment of cases like mine."

Mr. Young, as stated above, resides at 551 Erie street, where his statement can be easily verified.

THE OHIO TRAP SHOOTERS

Rain Does Not Interfere With Them.

Scores Made by the Boys at Columbus.

Rain Again Breaks in on the Ball Clubs all Over the Land—General Sporting Notes.

Columbus, O., May 12.—The gun tournament continued here yesterday. The drizzling rain interfered greatly with the attendance of visitors. The judges and trap operators were obliged to bundle themselves up in ulsters and blankets, while the costumes of the shooters ranged from "sweaters" to heavy overcoats.

The special event of the day occurred in the afternoon. This was a "League" shoot for the Sporting Review trophy. There were two men from each team, 50 targets a man, entrance for team $5. About 30 teams entered this contest. The work of Paul North, of Cleveland, on Tuesday, in the contest for the cup was surprising. Thirty targets were given each contestant, and North broke the 30 straight. Osborn smashed 29 out of the 30. Following are the scores:

Event No. 1 of Wednesday's program was "open to all," 10 targets. There were 47 entries. The score was as follows: Duffy 8, Young 10, Wheeling 8, Lemmon 8, Latham 7, Alkire 9, Perry 8, Sanford 10, Dick W. 9, Rushmore 9, Clark 6, McDonald 8, "C. C." 9, Nickel 3, Polk 5, Flick 8, North 9, Blair 4, Hamilton 9, Benscotten 9, Spross 9, Cain 5, Upson 8, Pumphrey 5, Randall 9, Redwing 10, Green 6, Vincent 8, Edwards 9, Taylor 8, Dick Smith 9, Osborn 9, See 6, Sterling 8, Wood 8, Gerton 7, Teiple 9, Bennett 8, Mosher 7, Jones 10, Tway 5, W. B. 6, Goodman 7, Richard 6, Saffold 10, R. W. Smith 7, Tug 8.

The entrance to this contest was $1 and the money was divided as follows:

First money, $15, between Young, Sanford, Redwing, Jones and Saffold.

Second money, $11.25, between Alkire, Dick W., Rushmore, "E. C.," North, Hamilton, Benscotten, Spross, Randall, Edwards, Dick Smith, Osborne and Teipel.

Third money, $7.50, between Duffer, Wheeling, Lemmon, Perry, McDonald, Flick, Upson, Vincent, Taylor, Sterling.

The second event was a "League" shoot. The entrance was $1.50, 15 targets. The following was the score: McDonald 14, Sanford 14, Alkire 14, Latham 12, Young 13, Vincent 13, Perry 13, North 15, Cain 14, Baker 9, Dick W. 12, Duffy 11, Hamilton 13, Spross 15, Pumphrey 12, Edwards 14, Taylor 14, Irwin 10, Osborn 13, Dick Smith 13, Clark 13, Sterling 11, Green 12, Redwing 15, Blair 7, Epson 13, Rusmore 11, Benscotten 10, Randall 12, Gerton 12, Tug 14, Wood 10, Richard 7, See 10, Saffold 11, "Profane" 10, W. B. 14, Goodman 12, Bennett 12, Bellingsby 11, Stout 12, Selback 13, Bob 11, Williams 13, Strong 12, Flowers 5.

First money, $13.50, Spross, North, Redwing.

Second money, $8.25, Tug, Taylor, "W. B." McDonald, Sanford, Alkire, Cain, Edwards.

Third money, Vincent, Hamilton, Osborn, Smith, Clark, Upson, Selback, Williams, Randall, Girton, Goodman, Bennett, Stout, Dick W., Latham.

Event No. 3, open to all, 15 targets, entrance $2—McDonald 14, Latham 12, Alkire 11, Pumphrey 11, Wheeling 12, Edwards 13, Vincent 15, Duffy 13, Dick Smith 10, Young 13, Clark 12, Spross 14, Lefevre 8, Williams 13, "C. C." 11, Perry 12, Sterling 10, Redwing 15, North 14, Teipel 12, Osborn 14, Upson 14, Benscotten 12, W. B. 14, Saffold 13, Randall 12, Lemmon 13, Rushmore 14, Baum 3, Flick 10, Jones 13, Polk 2, Bennett 12, Mosher 10, See 11, Richard 12, Wood 12, Girton —, Tug 12, Stout 13, Goodman out, R. W. Smith 13.

First money, $30, Alkire, Sanford, Pumphrey, Vincent, Redwing.

Second money, $22.95, McDonald, Spross, North, Osborn, Upson, W. B., Rushmore.

Third money, $15.30, Edwards, Duffy, Young, Williams, Saffold, Lemmon, Jones, Tug, R. W. Swish.

Fourth money, $7.65, Latham, Wheeling, Bennett, Clark, Triple, Stout, Randall.

Fourth event, 15 targets, $2 entrance, 42 entries—first money, Edwards, score 15, $17.85; second, Alkire, Clark, McDonald, Osborn, Sterling, Upson, Tug, score 14, $10.70; third, score 13, Young, D. Smith, Spross, Bennett, Wood.

Fifth event, open to all, 20 targets, entrance $2.50, 30 entries—first money $25.20, score 20, Osborne; second $18.90, score, 19, Sanford, Atkin, North, Upson, third score 18; Teiple, Clark, Holt.

Sixth event, League, 20 targets, 39 entries—first money $20.45, score 20; North, Spross; second $12.10, Osborn, Sanford, Hamilton, McDonald; third $8.10, Green, D. Smith, Redwing, Dick, Bennett, Alkire, Young, Cain.

Seventh event, open to all, 15 targets, 45 entries—first money $21.60, score 15, Holt, Rushmore, Perry; second $16.80, Green, Alkire, Sanford, Clark.

Eighth event, League, 15 targets, 41 entries—first money, $12.20, score 15, Dick, Smith, Osborn, McDonald; second, $7.20, Latham, Mock, Redwing, See, Alkire, Green.

The important event of the day was not shot until nearly sundown. It was special No. 11, three unknown traps, known angles. First money, score 15, was taken by Vincent; second, score 14, Sanford and McDonald. The purse has not yet been divided. The tournament will continue through to-morrow.

The special event of the day, the Sporting Review team trophy contest for a cup, came off this afternoon. It was for two men teams, 50 targets per man, the entrance fee per team being $5. Fourteen teams entered and the cup was won by Vincent and Cain, of Dayton, with a score of 91 out of a possible 100.

A prettier race than the eighteenth Kentucky derby was never run on the Churchill Downs track in Louisville. Though there were but three horses in it, it was excitement and doubt from the first few jumps. Money poured in on the Corrigan entry and the home plungers revelled in Azra at an odds of 9 to 5 and 2 to 1. They were sent away at the first start perfectly aligned. Britton rushed the mighty Huron ahead with all confidence. Azra was second, lapped by Phil Dwyer. It seemed to be the intention of Mr. Corrigan to let Huron make the running with a pace too hot for Azra and to win with Phil Dwyer when Huron had run Azra out. The pace was hot enough under ordinary circumstances for such intentions, and the program was carried out until the head of the stretch. The long colt hung on, however, and gave no evidence of weakening. In fact it was very evident that of the two Corrigan's horse was the more tired. Overton attempted to get Phil Dwyer into the lead, but the Longfellow colt was done for and it was seen that the battle was to be between the leaders. Farther and farther away from Azra did Huron and Britton get until five lengths separated them. Then it was that Azra came. As they passed the stand Clayton had eased up on Azra slightly. Azra answered the call nobly and as he went ahead, Britton shot Huron ahead, keeping the same distance between him and Azra. There was not a foot's difference in this distance until within two hundred yards of the wire when Azra was three lengths behind Huron. Then it was that little Clayton straightened himself and called on the long candidate. To everybody his response was perceptible. Slowly on Corrigan's pride did the colt gain, getting ahead at every stride. Neck and neck they raced as the crowd yelled itself hoarse. Both horses were doing their level best and it was simply a case of the best jockey. Just as they got under the wire the nose of Azra was lifted in front and the derby was over. Phil Dwyer was a length behind and in the finish was coming very fast.

The value of the derby to the winner was $4,230.

The recent indorsement of the Keeley treatment by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, and that of the United States government, ought to satisfy anyone that the Keeley cure for the liquor, opium and tobacco diseases, is a harmless remedy, and a Godsend to humanity. Every good thing has its imitators, and the Keeley cure is no exception. There are only two genuine Keeley cure institutes in Ohio, at Marysville and Madisonville.

The Marysville Institute is under the supervision of two eminent physicians, whose administration of the Keeley treatment to over 500 persons since January, 1891, has not been attended by a single accident or death. Our home treatment for the liquor and opium habits is far more successful than the imitation cures that have sprung up. The home treatment for the tobacco habit is having a large sale. Address,

THE PENSION OFFICE.

Mr. M. Loenshal Writes Relative to It

After a Visit to the Big Building—Something of the Work—The Route of a Claim.

Knowing that the readers of the Bee will be interested in having placed before them a full account of the pension bureau and its workings, the writer, having spent two weeks at the bureau, and having his eyes wide open, is in a position to state facts as he found them. The exterior length of the building is 400 feet, its width 200 feet; 40 feet of this, all around the building, four stories high, contain the working force of the bureau, consisting in all of 2,000 persons. Not all of these, however, are employed there. One hundred and fifty special examiners are at work in the field, i. e., scattered all over the United States; 142 persons constitute the force of laborers, mechanics, messengers and charwomen; 200 copyists are employed, and kept pretty busy at that. Deducting these three classes, we have 492 persons, who are not directly employed in the examinations and settlement of claims. The remainder of the force is distributed as follows:

Mail division	50
Record Division	160
Army and navy survivors' division	40
Eastern division	185
Middle division	190
Western division	160
Southern division	160
Old war and navy division	80
Board of review	67
Medical division	131
Law division	50
Special examination division	161
Certificate division	146
Finance division	20
Army and navy survivors' division	40
Stationery division	10
Admitted files division	20
Total	1,723

In the above divisions the 200 copyists and messengers are included, which accounts for the force as appearing to consist of 2,215 persons.

Work begins promptly at 9 o'clock a. m., and ends at 4 p. m., with just 30 minutes for lunch, from 12:30 to 1 p. m.

The course of a claim briefly stated is about as follows:

The declaration is received in the mail division, date of receipt is stamped thereon, and then is forwarded to the record division, where search is made for a prior claim if one has been filed. Both claimant and attorney are notified of receipt of claim, and a number assigned it. A further search is made through the files for certificate of disability, upon which the soldier may have been discharged, if his claim is under the old law. If such a certificate is found it is filed with the claim, and becomes important evidence for the claimant. From this division the claims are sent to the proper sections, where a record is kept of the claim in all its stages, until it is complete, when after such completeness is established, it is sent to the newly established completed files division, from which claims are drawn daily for settlements in the order in which they have been completed, as shown by the office stamp, showing date of completion. After passing from the hands of the examiner and reviewer, the claim if allowed, passes to the certificate division, where the certificate is made up according to the findings. These certificates are taken daily to the office of the commissioner, where they are properly signed, and then go to the secretary of the interior for his signature, returning through the office of the commissioner to the certificate division for completion, viz.: the issue of notices to the proper United States pension agent, to inscribe on his rolls, to issue voucher to the claimant and his attorney.

To show the immense amount of work accomplished, the writer gathered by permission, the following information from the daily official reports:

During April, 1892, there were received 410,780 pieces of mail; sent out, 273,703. On May 2, 3, 4 and 5 there were received respectively 13,487, 10,900, 10,107 and 13,350 pieces, while the number sent out for the same days was 7,085, 10,558, 9,652 and 7,634 pieces.

The department issued for April, 1892, 24,154 certificates, and for the first four days in May 913, 1,022, 924 and 1,351 certificates.

In April 28,653 claims of all kinds were filed. At noon on Friday, May 6, the number on certificates reached 762,687, and 331,796 on invalid and widow's certificates respectively. In the correspondence above given, calls upon the war department are not included.

The writer was disappointed. He expected to find ample grounds for criticism; on the contrary he found a well-regulated, thoroughly disciplined force of nearly 2,000 employes, each bent upon his task daily assigned him. Instead of finding the officers in charge, Gen. Raum, Col. Davidson and Col. Lincoln, difficult of approach, he found their offices crowded daily with members of congress, attorneys and claimants. Each received the same cordial treatment. In conversing with a large number of employes, many of whom were appointed during the administration of Gen. Black, all united in saying that the pension bureau was never in so excellent a condition as now.

A word as to the pending so-called investigation of the pension bureau by a committee of the house of representatives. Men of all shades of political opinion unite in saying that the alleged investigation has turned into one of persecution; that Messrs. Cooper and Enloe have gained nothing for their party advantage, and that, to speak plainly, they have put their foot in it.

Preachers Referred to the Police Board on Sunday Ball—The Ashley Buildings—A Coming Wedding—Other News.

THEY ARE DROPPING IN.

Annual Reports of the Assessors Being Filed With the Auditor.

Two more assessors filed their report with the county auditor to-day.

Precinct 2 of Oregon township, the total valuation is fixed at $30,755.

Waynesfield township is valued at $23,786.

TALK TO THE BOARD.

Such Is Mayor Emmick's Advice to the Preachers' Committee.

Mayor Emmick met the committee from the Pastors' union yesterday and they held a brief conference over Sunday base ball. The mayor declined to take any action on his own responsibility and referred them to the board of police commissioners. The committee will therefore present their case to the board at the next meeting.

THE ASHLEY BUILDINGS.

Surveyors Laying the Stakes and Preparing for Their Erection.

Surveyors are at work this morning locating the lines for the two Ashley buildings on the respective corners of Jefferson and Michigan streets. The streets have been raised so as to eliminate the necessity of excavating for a cellar. Tests will be made to ascertain whether piling will be needed and then the work of construction will be commenced.

REPORT OF HEALTH OFFICER

For the Month of April—The Death Rate on the Increase.

The monthly report of Health Officer Fisher, issued yesterday, shows that during April there were 127 deaths, an increase of 35 over the previous month. Eight cases of diphtheria were reported and 16 cases of scarlet fever. Twenty-one houses were disinfected during the month. There has been no whooping cough in the city for some time, but several cases were reported yesterday.

THE N. W. O. RAILWAY

Assessed by the County Auditors Along the Line.

The county auditors through which the Northwestern Ohio division of the Pennsylvania railroad is constructed met at the county auditor's office to-day and assessed the property of this road through the state for taxation. The following auditors were present:

J. B. Wilson, Wood; Deputy J. Domeyson Sandusky; Deputy R. R. Bour, Seneca; Reuben Stahley, Crawford; J. T. Seward, Richland; C. H. Jones, Lucas.

The property was appraised as follows: Main line, per mile, $9,500; sidings, per mile, $3,000; rolling stock, per mile, $4,100; buildings, operation of road, $30,500; real estate in county, $20,386; moneys credit county, per mile, $400.

MISPLACED CONFIDENCE.

One Prisoner at the Workhouse Robs Another, and Again Goes Behind the Bars.

Harold Darwin and a man by the name of Ellsworth were prisoners at the workhouse. Darwin's term expired, and as he was leaving Ellsworth asked him to go to his home and get a coat and some money he would find there, and bring them to him, so that he could pay his fine and be discharged. Darwin took the key he gave him, went to Ellsworth's room, got the coat and money, and then skipped out. He was arrested and this morning given $20 and costs and 20 days.

THE CARRINGTON HOMESTEAD

To Be Sold June 11 Instead of the 19th.

An error as to date occurred in the Bee last evening relative to the sale of the Carrington homestead. It will be held on June 11, at 3 p. m., instead of the 19th.

Mr. F. B. Shoemaker was asked by a Bee this morning if there was any truth in the report circulated that Mr. Will Carrington would soon take up his residence in Chicago.

"The matter of the sale of the homestead has nothing whatever to do with Mr. Carrington's Chicago business," replied Mr. Shoemaker. "The company has large business interests at Chicago, and it requires very much of Mr. Carrington's time there, but he will undoubtedly retain his residence in Toledo." This will be gratifying information to Mr. C.'s many friends in Toledo.

Toledo Typographical Union Wires a Message to Denver.

A special meeting of Toledo Typographical union, No. 63, was held at 5:30 yesterday afternoon to take action in regard to the celebration of George W. Childs' birthday, and in connection therewith to add its appreciation of the completion of the printers' home at Denver. A beautiful floral offering was sent, and with it the following dispatch:

Toledo, May 11, 1892.

Toledo Typographical union congratulates Messrs. Childs and Drexel on the completion of the home, and unite with other unions in wishing Mr. Childs many happy returns of his birthday.

MISS CLOUSE'S LITTLE PUPILS

Give an Evening of Pleasure at the Central Congregational Church.

"Last but not least" by any means, Miss Rose Clouse's little pupils gave an evening of music, assisted by Sadie Wertheim and Jamie Hussey, last evening, which was a truly enjoyable affair. The program was excellent and nicely carried out. The participants were: Anna Sprague and Dorothy Bonner, Walter Braun, Nettie Stock, Alice Melvin, Jamie Hussey, Herman Hill, Tillie Hassenzahl, Walter Eversman, Rose Hill, Sadie Wertheim, Romaine Curry and Lena Hassenzahl.

Miss Clouse is to be congratulated upon the success of these recitals. They have given pleasure to a large number of Toledo people, and show the work which Miss Clouse is accomplishing.

TOLEDO AND TIFFIN

To Be Again Joined, at Least by Matrimonial Ties.

On the 25th of May occurs the marriage of a prominent young man, who holds forth in a furniture store on Summit street, near Adams, to a charming Tiffin lady. Everybody don't know this, and it is not meant to give him away, but he has been so interested in Arlington Flats of late, washing windows and scrubbing floors, that the curiosity of the people has been aroused. This popular young man, who can dance the skirt dance, and entertain a whole big audience, will be missed in the bachelors' circle, but it is the wish of his friends that prosperity may attend him and his betrothed as they launch out on the matrimonial sea. Of course a number of Toledo young ladies regret that Toledo wasn't good enough for Carmencita, but a hearty welcome for Tiffin is insured just the same.

MEETING TO-MORROW

Of the Woman's Club Building Committee.

To-morrow (Friday) at 4 p. m., at the Bee editorial rooms occurs the regular meeting of the Woman's building committee. The club house project grows apace. It is not to be a social club house, or a literary club house, but a home for the good accommodation of all clubs which contribute to its support by payment of reasonable rental. Women members of all societies and of no society at all, are invited to become shareholders and enjoy the benefits and profits of the investment. A full meeting of the committee is requested. Take the elevator in the main hall as you enter and ask to be taken to room 20, fourth floor.

HAD A GOOD TIME

After the Initiation of Nine Candidates by Nasby Council.

At the regular meeting of Nasby council last evening nine candidates were initiated, and after the work the balance of the evening was given up to social enjoyment. There was music, recitations and the entertainment concluded with an elegant supper. The special feature of the evening was the elocutionary readings by Mr. F. A. Peake, brother of Treasurer Peake. Mr. Peake is an elocutionist of rare ability.

DR. NELLIE HOLLISTER

Appointed on the Medical Staff of the Cleveland Asylum.

The Norwalk Experiment-News of last evening, has the following complimentary notice of Miss Nellie Hollister, who has been appointed to a position on Superintendent Eyman's staff at the Cleveland asylum:

We are pleased to learn that Miss Dr. Nellie Hollister was elected last Saturday to fill an important position on the medical staff of the Newburgh insane asylum. All who remember her as the bright, rosy-cheeked school girl, and later, the faithful teacher, plodding through storm and snow to reach the little school house at the extreme eastern limit of the corporation, in order to make her way to a complete medical education, will rejoice at her great success; and as a Norwalk bred young lady, we can all feel flattered at a further recognition of Norwalk talent.

Miss Hollister has been occupying a position of the same sort in the Toledo asylum, where her success gave her a state reputation and brought her, unsolicited, this great advancement.

Many of the most influential men of the state interested themselves in her behalf, especially Dr. Eyman, superintendent of the Newburgh asylum.

Her brother, a Norwalk boy, is also one of the most successful physicians and one of the most influential men of Toledo.

AT THE KETCHAM FARM.

A Party of Toledoans Nicely Entertained.

Mr. George H. Ketcham yesterday entertained Mayor Emmick, Robert Raitz, C. C. Hirssig, Ed Unbehaum, F. C. Smith and a number of Toledo people at his stock farm. Mr. Ketcham's string is all ready to start for the summer circuit, and will include:

Charlie Friel, 2:15 3-4.

Morea, 2:24 1-4, by Electioneer, dam by Mambrino Pilot.

Susie B., 2:34 1-4, by Sam Patch.

Nyanza, 2-year record 2:52, by Robert McGregor, dam by Almont.

We We, 2-year-old, by Baronstein, dam by Strathmore.

Alpha, yearling, by Allie Wilkes, dam by Sam Patch and Baronstein 6149.

The first races are at Bellevue, Ohio, June 1, 2 and 3; Bowling Green, June 8, 9, 10 and 11; Lima, June 14, 15, 16 and 17; Findlay, June 21, 22, 23 and 24; Mansfield, June 28, 29 and 30; Detroit exposition, July 5, 6 and 7; Toledo summer meeting July 12, 13, 14 and 15; Detroit grand circuit, July 19, 20 and 21; Cleveland, July 27, 28 and 29; Sturgis, August 3 and 4; Cincinnati, August 9, 10 and 11; Northwestern Breeders' association, Chicago, Ill., August 15 to 20; Cleveland, September 1 and 2; Toledo exposition, September 5 to 10; Ohio State fair, Columbus, September 12 to 17; Chillicothe, O., October 4 to 8; Nashville, Tenn., October 24 to 26; Columbia, Tenn., October 27, 28 and 29 and November 1 to 4.

The gentlemen who visited the farm yesterday speak in the highest terms of the institution.

IN LABOR CIRCLES.

Electrical Workers' Ball a Happy Success—Notes.

Longshoremen met last night.

International Furniture Workers of America met at Phoenix hall last night.

Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners held a meeting at Carpenters' hall last night.

A typographical error made the Bee say last night that the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators held their annual meeting Tuesday night. It should have read weekly meeting.

The executive committee of the brewers' union held a meeting last night and the Bee has it from the best authority that malters will come to a climax Friday night. The men have made some concessions, and it is believed the brewers will sign the revised scale and that the trouble will be amicably settled to-morrow night.

International Association of Machinists held their regular weekly meeting at Turley's hall last night and initiated two new members. A proposition from the University Extension society was received, asking the association to support a course of lectures on Mechanics. After some discussion it was laid over for one week on account of small attendance.

As predicted in the Bee yesterday, the ball given by the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers' at Odd Fellows' Temple last night was a success in every respect. The committees in charge deserve much praise for the creditable manner in which they performed their duties. Their friends, to the number of 300, were present and hope the success of their first party will encourage the union to give many more of the same kind.

FIRST BAPTIST W. H. M. S.

Hold an Interesting Session—Mention of Other Events.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Baptist church met in the church parlors yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Farrar presided. Miss Elizabeth Wilson was present and assisted in conducting the devotional exercises. An excellent program was rendered, consisting of a talk by Mrs. Farrar on Hindoostan with black-board illustrations, and appropriate selections read by Mrs. Meyers and Mrs. Freeman. The regular meetings of this society are on the second Wednesday of each month, but as the quarterly meeting of the church association will come on that date next month, the meeting will be held on the first Wednesday, June 1, and the executive committee of the society will meet at the home of Mrs. Farrar Saturday afternoon at 2:30 to arrange for this meeting.

A quotation social will be given at the home of Mrs. M. R. Davis, lower Superior street, to-morrow evening.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Congregational church gave a musicale last night at the home of Miss Maud Pecham on Eleventh street.

The Ys will hold a parlor meeting with Miss Una Crum, 2327 Ashland avenue, to-morrow afternoon.

Mrs. J. M. Wheeler, 215 Tenth street, will entertain the Theosophical Reading club to-night. These meetings are merely informal discussions of matters pertaining to theosophy, and no regular program is prepared.

The Dante circle meets with Miss Helen Nolan, Erie street, last evening. The program prepared is very interesting.

Next Sunday evening Mrs. S. M. Perkins, of Cleveland, national organizer for the W. C. T. U., will speak in the Central Congregational church on the "Child and State." Mrs. Perkins is well known in Toledo as an able speaker, and no one interested in scientific temperance work can afford to miss this lecture.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Kansas City's ball tossers are quartered at the Burnett.

Umbrella and gossamer trade has been brisk for some time.

Mrs. Rowell, who died yesterday, was taken to Delta to-day for burial.

There is a bad cave-in in the crosswalk at the corner of Magnolia and Huron streets.

Rev. D. M. Fisk delivered an address at Oberlin last night, on the subject of "The Christianization of Wealth."

Rolling mill directors held their regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon, but nothing of importance to the public was discussed.

The jury commissioners recently appointed by the common pleas court to select 418 jurors for the year began the task this morning.

The bid of the Warren-Scharf Asphalt Paving company for paving Monroe street with asphalt from Bancroft street to the city line, is $24,872.40.

The past two weeks would have proved an excellent time for inventory business with the city merchants. The rain has kept traders within doors.

Walter Geddes wil have charge of the soda fountain on the steamer City of Toledo this summer, which makes the first trip of the season next Sunday.

Building permits have been issued to Dr. H. Hathaway for a $600 frame dwelling on Miami street, and to Mrs. Trumble for a $1,000 frame dwelling on Oak street.

A deed was filed at the recorder's office to-day whereby John B. Ketcham, 2d, sold to David Robison, jr., lots 72, 73 and the north half of 76, Scottwood addition, for $5,000.

It is said ex-Detective Gilroy will be placed on the police force as patrolman at the meeting of the commissioners next Wednesday night. Mr. Gilroy has always been a faithful and efficient officer, and deserves fair treatment.

Mr. Cook and Miss Nellie Cook have returned from Chicago, where they spent a few days.

The mite society met at the residence of Mr. John Humphrey, corner of Railroad avenue and Sumner street, last evening.

Judge and Mrs. Rouse entertained a few friends informally last evening. Music and conversation made the occasion an enjoyable one.

Prof. McPherson, of the high school, has received and accepted a call to the Ohio State university as teacher of chemistry. He has made arrangements to remain in Toledo, however, until the latter part of the term.

The Daughters of Trinity entertained a number of friends last evening in a pleasant manner. The ladies were dressed to represent characters portrayed by some of our best authors. A guessing contest then took place as to who they were. Out of the characters represented, Miss Taylor recognized the larger number. The Daughters of Trinity are always successful in giving excellent entertainments.

Last evening at 8:30 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Lou Fahnstock to Mr. Sidney Cooke, at their pretty new home on Melrose street. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. H. M. Bacon in presence of the family and a few intimate friends. The bride was very pretty in white India silk and net. Congratulations and best wishes are extended to the happy couple from a host of friends.

The Pleasure Euchre club had a most enjoyable meeting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Davis, of Missouri street, last evening. This being the last meeting of the season, the occasion was made a special one. At the conclusion of the evening's contest, the following prizes were awarded: Mrs. Thomas Laskey and Mr. H. J. Schuky, first favors; Mrs. L. Machlup and Mr. T. Pleiss, the booby. Mrs. Lou De La Foret and Mr. Frank Weis, having the greatest number of games won to their credit, received first grand prize; Miss Rose Wenning and Mr. Alex. Schwalbe, having the least number of games won during the season to their credit, received the grand booby. A dainty luncheon was prepared by Mrs. Davis, after which the members were favored with instrumental music and pretty songs were sung, much enjoyed by all.

An exceedingly pretty and quiet home wedding occurred last evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John La Barre, when they gave their daughter Lucebia in marriage to Mr. Fred Persons. Rev. W. W. Williams performed the marriage ceremony, assisted by Rev. S. D. Hutsinpiller. The bride was charming in pearl satin with pearl garniture and gloves and slippers to match, and carried English violets. Miss Ruthie Parks was maid of honor and was prettily attired in pink. Four of Mrs. Persons' little pupils, Bessie Packard, Bessie Cone, Grace Bishop and Edith Billstein, were maids of honor, two preceding and two following the bridal party on either side, carrying broad white ribbons forming an aisle to the altar, which was brought from the First Congregational church. Mr. Dan Russell, of St. Louis, acted as best man. The decorations were of heliotrope and were very artistic. After receiving congratulations the happy couple left for a western trip, and upon their return will be at home with Mr. and Mrs. La Barre. During the evening a wedding supper was served. The table decorations were a huge bowl of pink roses for a center piece and flowers lightly strewn about. Mr. and Mrs. Persons were the recipients of numerous beautiful presents, both from friends abroad and at home. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Breckenridge, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Breckenridge, Mr. and Mrs. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jack, of Chicago; Mr. Clarence Neare, of Cincinnati; Mrs. Sampsell, of Elyria; Miss Wooster, of Elyria; Rev. and Mrs. Hutsinpiller, Mr. Robert Persons, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Brown, Miss Bessie Doolittle, Mr. Theodore Ecker, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, of Ottawa; Miss Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman, Miss Blair, Mr. and Mrs. W. POPE WILL COME BACK.

He Talks With Mr. Thede Stevens of His Return.

He is in Hard Lines, and on His Return Will Take Anything in the Way of Work that Offers.

Mr. Thede Stevens, of the Merchants' National bank, returned from Mt. Clemens last evening. En route home he stopped over in Detroit, and about one of the first men he ran across was A. E. Pope.

Mr. Stevens bears out the statements of other Toledoans who have seen the runaway agent. His are hard lines just at present.

"I talked with him several hours," Mr. Stevens said to a Bee this morning, "and his worst enemy, if he has one, would sympathize with him. I advised him to come back to Toledo and live it down, and he said he would consider the matter. Before I left Detroit he called on me again and said he had about decided to return to Toledo and take the consequences."

Pope is depressed and says he has sought for work in vain everywhere. He has no money, and after reaching Canada he walked from Tonawanda to Toronto, but could find no work there. He deadheaded his way to Detroit, and is now living in Windsor.

Mr. Stevens denies emphatically that Pope is drinking. He was with him four hours, and a drink was not even mentioned.

A great deal of sympathy has been stirred up here for Pope in the last week. It is one of the best traits of the average American to give a man "another show" and to help the fallen.

Pope is afraid he will be arrested if he returns, but it is generally understood that he will not be troubled further, as the insurance companies could have reached him in Detroit had they wanted him badly.

The First Woman Ever Appointed to Such a Position in This Country Quits on Account of Ill Health.

Miss Hallie Brown, who for 11 years has been deputy clerk of the United States district court here, has resigned on account of ill health.

Eleven years ago Miss Brown was appointed to the position by Judge Welker under the present Judge Ricks, who was then clerk.

Sh ewas the first woman ever appointed to any similar governement office in this country, and Judge Welker has sometimes taken occasion to refer to this fact with considerable pride.

Miss Brown's resignation will be learned by attorneys and all others who have had business in the United States court here with extreme regret. During her long term of service she has made hosts of warm friends through her courtesy and kindness to all with whom she came in contact. With newspaper men she was exceedingly popular, and will take with her their best wishes.

She will remain in the office until June 1, or to the time when her successor is appointed. She will probably spend the summer with friends in Tennessee, from which her acquaintances hope she will return with renewed health.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.

Mr. Jerry Dewey Accepts a Feasible Proposition

To Erect a $250,000 Place of Amusement in This City—Toledo Capital Backs the Project.

Report had it this morning that Toledo was to have a new opera house. One of the projectors was said to be Mr. Jerry Dewey, of Cleveland, who is at present visiting in Toledo.

Mr. Dewey was asked this morning by a Bee what there was in the report.

"That is strange," he said. "It was only last night that the matter was discussed, and yet here the papers have hold of it. Well, the facts are these: Last evening I was called into a conference at which several Toledoans proposed putting up a certain amount of capital for the purpose of erecting a large theater. I was asked if I would undertake to manage the project, and I repled yes, under certain conditions."

"What were the conditions, Mr. Dewey?"

"They were chiefly that the gentlemen should putth eir proposition in writing, and then I agreed to go to work and raise here in Toledo the balance—$250,000 in all."

"What is the result so far?"

"The papers are being drawn up to-day, and I believe it is a go. No; I cannot give you the names of the other projectors at present."

If there is a man in the country who can make the proposed enterprise a success, it is Mr. Dewey. He knows no such word as fail.

PASTURE AT $2 A MONTH!

I will take horses to pasture on my farm at Bay Shore. They will be looked after twice a day, be regularly salted and cared for. The pasture is part tame and part wild. When the tame pasture is exhausted, as is invariably the case in the middle of the summer, the wild pasture is rich and luxuriant, keeping the stock in prime condition the whole season.

The pasture fronts on the bay, so that the stock can stand in the water, which is of material benefit to horses which have become sore from being driven on the pavements. For further information address FRANK B. NILES, 357 Irving St., Toledo, O.

Uneasy lies the head that has a presidential bee in its night-cap.

There's opportunity now for Mr. Cleveland (or Mr. Hill) to perform the Gen. Gibson act.

The ubiquitous Major General Squire, of Ohio, was a porcupine delegate at the Piqua Grand Army meeting this week.

The Campbell boom assumes the proportions of vigorous health. Our Jimmy would make a typical American president.

The Courier-Journal very neatly says "The free trade registry law and reciprocity measure are the tributes vice pays to virtue."

The Washington-born booms go scooting along the telegraph wires, stop off at the various stations and are lost to the world from henceforth. There's the Fuller, Lincoln, Rusk and Depew booms in hiding somewhere along the lines of travel.

The Idaho republicans want unlimited silver and Blaine. The New Mexicans declare for free coinage and Cleveland. Montana shouts for free silver and Harrison. And these are but samples of the high old mix.

The election of Hon. I. F. Mack of the Sandusky Register as Department Commander of the Grand Army of Ohio is a graceful tribute to a man who was a courageous fighter in war and who is a forceful citizen in time of peace. It is a compliment most worthily bestowed.

The ministers plenipotentiary who have resigned and flocked home to campaign for Mr. Harrison, must all have separate and satisfactory promises of future promotion, if their man shall be able to get there. It is a sublime spectacle the president of the United States makes of himself.

To the unprejudiced, dispassionate judgment, what a supremely ridiculous spectacle this government makes of itself on the tariff and trust question. It builds a tariff which enables parties to control production and regulate prices; then it puts on a masque and passes an anti-trust law to combat the legitimate results of its tariff legislation. This is the naked truth in a nut-shell.

A Washington correspondent who professes to be deep in the confidence of Blaine's close friends says, the greatest infliction the Secretary has to suffer is from the utterances of Russell Harrison as to his health and his intentions. Well, the president's son must be "in it" somehow. There's the Yellowstone park deal, besides the Blaine annoyance.

Mr. Depew has been traveling through the Virginias and in his return oration says "the furnaces and factories are all republican." Which is doubtless true so far as owners are concerned, but Mr. Depew is reminded that agriculturists, and laborers not subject to intimidation or bossism, also have the right of franchise, in this country, and are unbought by any special legislation.

Some Canadian papers enjoy publishing squibs like this:

The world's fair commission at Chicago has run short of funds, having only $1,000 on hand to pay claims now due for salaries, etc., amounting to $10,000.—Toronto Empire.

Without qualification or explanation this has a satisfactorily bad sound. Come over the border, neighbors, and take a glance at the scale of magnificence in which this affair is moving forward, and listen around a bit. You'll go home smiling, and satisfied that croaks and insinuations are quite out of order.

If the country which exports the goods pays the tax on the same, won't our government please cease advising foreigners to raise their repestive tariff laws to the altitude of our own. If it be true that our exports are continually increasing, we are paying more tax for the foreigners than they pay for us. It will take very nice management to keep this thing balanced. When every country has the other countries with which it carries on trade, paying its tariff tax, how rich and prosperous and happy all the countries will become!

Among the glorious achievements of the republican party in days past Gov. McKinley mentions "the Pacific roads built with the aid of government subsidy." Inasmuch as these roads defiantly refuse to pay the immense debt they owe the government and neglect to even keep up the interest on their bonds, and inasmuch as they have laid themselves liable to the charge of buying legislation in thir behalf, of appropriating unearned lands, of driving out honest settlers and of trying to crush the life out of farmers and shippers along their lines, it is quite proper that th's harmonious element should be introduced into Gov. McKinley's "keynote."

DOUGLASS AND DYNAMITE.

Ex-Minister to Hayti Fred Douglass endorses the Harrison administration and says it has done all it could for the negro. What Frederick means is that he has been treated fairly well and the common lot needn't complain. There is no chance to draw comparisons between the northern and the southern negro in this respect, so he wisely refrains from particularizing. Perhaps Mr. Douglass has forgotten that early in the Harrison campaign, republican managers offered to disfranchise his race in the south if white voters would pledge support to Mr. Harrison.

When Mr. Fred Douglass threatens that the negroes will learn to use dynamite and become expert bomb-throwers, it is high time to call down the variegated incendiary. His white-skinned wife should pull on his coat-tail and admonish him to remember that two of the worst lynching bees in the south were led by negroes. When Mr. Douglass says "the negroes are not outragers of women and children in the south," he deliberately lies, or every newspaper and every telegraph wire in the country tell false tales. The attempt to employ Mr. Douglass to create a sectional campaign issue will prove a failure.

If the newly-elected Sanitary Superintendent of New York city, Dr. Cyrus Edson, shall follow out the program he has printed for himself, he will earn a salary of a hundred thousand dollars a year. He is going to secure ventilation for the public school rooms, cause all garbage to be removed from back yards and cellars, regulate all disease-breeding nuisances as slaughter houses, soap factories, rendering establishments and the like; look after proper sanitary arrangements in all places where employes labor under conditions antagonistic to health, and manage the "bureau of contagious diseases" with a view to prevention as well as cure. Heaven speed him and may other cities take notice.

The superintendent of a New York asylum knows several insane persons who have been cured by the excitement of base ball games. Hardly enough to keep the balance, probably, as most every person knows of some one or more who have lost their reason because of the same.

The Czar of Russia, it is said, has made himself bald by continually rubbing the top of his head with his hand. Travelers in the wild Indian country acquire the same habit of feeling for their scalps.

The question of women delegates and dancing, in the M. E. councils, and of Lane Seminary and Dr. Briggs in Presbyterian circles will keep the religious world animated for some months to come.

Secretary Blaine is not as indifferent to the political situation as appearances might indicate. He gave his boom a fresh start by appearing at the circus, in Washington this week.

"The campaign keynote is sounded" again, McKinley did it.

AND THOU, TOO, GRIFFIN.

He Is To Share the Same Fate As Judge King.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean is adding its mite to the harmony now prevailing in Ohio, and has a dispatch from Columbus on the defeat of Judge King in the McKinley district. Toledo's representative, Mr. Griffin, has a word of warning in the same. The dispatch follows:

The defeat of Hon. L. W. King for the nomination for congress in McKinley's district, the Eighteenth, has had the effect of opening the eyes of that faction of the party that has sought to harass and humiliate the governor during the last few months.

Judge King under ordinary circumstances would have received the nomination without much, if any, opposition, but he had so closely allied himself with that wing of the party that sought to "do" the governor that the republicans resented his course on the first occasion.

Mr. King was in training for the nomination for several months, but the suspicion that he had allied himself with the Foraker wing of the party in exalting Representative Griffin and honoring him with a position that had been, by general consent and party usage, for years conceded the governor, namely, that of presiding over the temporary and permanent organization of the state convention following his own election, was sufficient to arouse the indignation of those republicans who believe in fair play, and a movement was begun which was successful in defeating his aspirations, although Mr. King had been high up in the counsels of the party. He not only lost his place as chairman of the state committee, but has been defeated in reaching higher honors.

Among well informed of both parties the defeat of Judge King is construed as an object lesson for other candidates for congressional honors that have seen fit to place themselves on record in a like manner. That Judge King is mortified and angry is not to be doubted, but it might be added in this connection that Representative Griffin, of Toledo, who aspires for similar honors, will share the same fate.

A SUIT TO COMPEL

The Sale of an Ashland Avenue Lot

Under an Agreement Made by the Owners with Mr. C. J. Peet, Who Will Lose $700 If It Is Not a Go.

An interesting suit was filed in common pleas court to-day, growing out of a real estate deal.

It seems that on the 30th day of April Belle M. Bliss and J. E. Bliss signed a contract to sell a lot on the corner of Ashland avenue and Fulton street to Charles J. Peet for $2,800.

The action filed in common pleas court to-day is to enforce the performance of their contract, instituted by Charles J. Peet, the purchaser.

In his petition the plaintiff sets up that he had the lot sold for $3,500, and if the defendants do not perform their part of the contract he will lose $700 profit.

CUBAN DUTIES.

Havana, May 12.—The agitation in regard to the alcohol and sugar duties continues. Cuban rum manufacturers say that the difference between the duties on grape rum and those on cane rum is so considerable that the latter will be totally neglected. The manufacturers claim that their losses will be enormous.

THE BRITISH PATROL.

Victoria B. C., May 12.—The British Bering sea patrol will leave about June 1 with orders to seize all vessels found sealing, whether they have been notified or not. The patrol consists of the Melpomene, Nymphe and Daphne.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Cannot Senator Hill get a single democratic state convention outside of New York to recognize the fact that he is a presidential candidate?—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Observing the great number of newspapers in the hands of citizens yesterday, a foreigner remarked: "It is not a wonder that Americans are so intelligent and that knowledge is generally diffused among all classes; they carry their library under their arms."—New York News.

If Canuck statesmen close the Welland Canal to American vessels they will have the exquisite pleasure of seeing another canal cut through on the American side without unnecessary delay. That is the way your Brother Jonathan makes compromises.—Detroit Tribune.

Anarchy is the savage violence of a mere handful who refuse to recognize the principle that in human society there must be some governing tribunal, and in a republic it is the majority. Anarchists should not be dealt with sentimentally, but according to law, and vigorously.—Boston Traveller.

The framers of the constitution certainly never anticipated that it would be in the power of a single corporation boss to levy a tax of $6,000,000 a year on the coal consumers of the country by a stroke of his pen.—New York World.

It is folly to talk about the "Cleveland boom." There has been no Cleveland boom and never will be. The word "boom" implies something mushroomy, which is started all of a sudden, and is pushed forward by extra and special exertion. The feeling in favor of Cleveland has always been exactly the contrary to that. It has been the fixed and thoughtful sentiment of the people, which began eight years ago and has grown steadily ever since. To speak of the Bill boom is always correct, but of the Cleveland boom, never.—Richmond Times.

If Sherman should be called higher he is not the man to decline that honor. But he is not a candidate for it, will not be a candidate for it, and is an out-and-out supporter of Harrison, and he is above any political intrigues that politicians might invent. Set it down, therefore, that John Sherman is in the United States senate to stay, and all this talk about his resigning is mere bosh.—Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

Gov. McKinley says he has his hands full, and that he does not dream of getting the presidential nomination. The governor doubtless wishes to spend his days among the Ohio shepherds and watch the little lambs while their wool is growing.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The announcement that Senator Stanford of California is anxious to resign his seat in the senate, and that he will do so should a republican legislature be elected in that state this fall, would be more credible if it were not for the fact that the present legislature is republican, and that he could safely resign now, if he really wanted to. The chances are that he will stick.—Boston Herald.

The trouble with Mr. Kipling is that he endeavors to see everything that is bad and nothing that is good. If people were to look at Mr. Kipling's books as he looks at America the young man would soon be pegging away at a newspaper desk in India.—Kansas City Star.

THE WABASH SUIT

To Recover Elevator Number Five Property.

It Will Likely Provoke a Lengthy Legal Contest—Mr. Fred Shoemaker on the Subject.

The suit instituted in common pleas court yesterday by the Wabash Railway company against the Toledo & Wabash Elevator company to gain possession of the property on which elevator No. 5 stands and all improvements, created considerable comment among grain dealers and in financial circles generally.

The case is an interesting one, and will give rise to many new legal questions in law of equity.

It will doubtless be a long and bitter legal fight as both parties are powerful in financial standing, and as there are two millions of dollars' worth of property involved, to say nothing of the business interests, neither side will give up until compelled to.

Speaking with a Bee on the subject this morning, Mr. Fred Shoemaker, who is largely interested in the elevator company, stated that he did not understand the object of the proceedings of he railroad company.. When the elevator company leased the property in question, it was practically worthless. The company made all of the present improvements, aside from erecting an elevator that cost over a million dollars. This was done as much in the interest of the railroad company as the management of the elevator company, and the service had always been of the best and supposed to have been satisfactory to the railroad company. The lease, he stated, was given for 99 years, and in his opinion would hold in any court of equity.

The railroad company claims that all leases and obligations on the property expired when the road was sold to its present management.

A NEW CONSTITUTION

For the Ohio Yacht Club Drawn Up

And Will be Adopted To-morrow Evening—Other Matters Concerning the Organization.

At the regular meeting of the Ohio Yacht club to-morrow evening a new constitution and by-laws will be adopted. The present constitution does not meet the requirement of the increased membership of the club. It was sufficient when there were but 50 members, but at present the number reaches 400 or more.

Under the new constitution more of the officers will be on the directory, and to insure attendance at directors' meetings any member absent at three consecutive meetings will be dropped. To-day the following notice will be sent to those who are arrears in dues:

"You are hereby notified that you are in arrears for dues to July 1, 1892. You must recognize the fact that you became a member of this organization under the agreement and promise that you would abide by its constitution and by-laws.

"Article 6, Section 1, relating to suspensions will be strictly inforced upon all members not paying within ten days from date of this notice. Action of this suspension will be taken by the board of directors with the full understanding that the debt is a legal one.

"You are therefore earnestly requested to remit the above amount to Mr. James Blass, No. 41 and 42 Produce exchange, who is authorized by the board to receive money and receipt for the same. The services of collector have been suspended with."

It is desired that there be a full attendance at to-morrow evening's meeting, as the proceedings will be of the utmost interest to the club's future prosperity.

MAPLE SUGAR PRODUCERS

Must Apply for License on a New Form.

Collector Waldorf Receives Notice for Circulation, Which Requires Attention Before June 30.

The maple sugar business is fast assuming large proportions, especially in this locality. This morning Collector Waldorf received an important circular, which will be of interest to producers, and, as it effects licenses and date of issue, their immediate attention is respectfully called to the same:

George P. Waldorf, Esq., Collector Tenth District, Toledo, Ohio:

Sir: Your attention is called to the new form of notice and application for license for maple sugar producers. Form No. 288, revised, and the bond which is printed on the same form.

All producers of maple sugar who desire to obtain a license for the year commencing July 1, 1892, in order to entitle themselves thereto, must, prior to that date, file a notice and application and a bond, executed according to the prescribed form.

You will inform the sugar producers in your district of this requirement so that no one intending to manufacture sugar and to apply for the bounty may fail to file the necessary papers within the time prescribed by law.

Applications for license with the accompanying bond when sent by mail must be mailed seasonably, so as to reach the collector's office before the first day of July, as there is no authority to issue a license if papers are received after June 30. Respectfully yours,

JOHN MASON,
Commissioner.

DYNAMITE FOR ARGUMENT

Venezuela Gets Another Sudden Scare.

An Attempt Made to Blow Up the House of Minister of Finance Mattos.

New York, May 12.—A special cable dispatch to the Herald from Caracas, Venezuela, says a dynamite bomb was exploded Tuesday evening alongside the residence of Minister of Finance Mattos, which badly wrecked the building but injured no one.

This is the third dynamite outrage in the city since the revolution broke out, and it has struck terror to the hearts of Palacio's supporters and the citizens generally.

The terror was increased yesterday by the discovery in a house near where the latest explosion occurred of a dozen bombs, six flasks of vitriol and a large number of rifles. No arrests were made.

A report reached Caracas yesterday that the yong son of Gen. Crespo, who was recently captured by government troops, had escaped from his captors while en route to the capital. Palacio is said to be greatly angered over the escape, as he had hoped to hold him as a valuable hostage.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED.

A Supposed Suicide in Darke County May Turn Out to be a Murder.

Celina, O., May 12.—The little village of Castine, in Darke county, is all torn up over the supposed suicide by hanging of John Fowble about two weeks ago, but it has developed since that time that the man met his death by other hands and not his own, and the supposition is that he was first murdered and then hung to cover the suspicion of the foul crime.

It is thought that he was poisoned. Since the burial of Mr. Fowble it has been rumored that two persons were seriously connected with the disposing of him, the rumors being so well based that Coroner Berry and ex-Coroner Rush, Prosecutor Hartman, J. C. Elliot, and Sheriff Welker had the body disinterred and another examination made of the remains, which developed that he was alive when hung. The stomach was removed and sent away to be analyzed and further developments are expected. The parties suspected are kept under close watch.

LANE SEMINARY TROUBLES.

Two of the Officials Resign—An Expert at Work on the Books.

Cincinnati, May 12.—The trouble in the Lane Seminary board of trustees grows steadily.

Dr. Montfort has resigned the secretaryship, and Rev. Elias Montfort the treasurership.

Matthew Addy has been elected treasurer, but before taking hold put an expert to work on the books.

It is hinted that serious mismanagement exists. The seminary is the richest Presbyterian school in America, and owns great tracts of valuable real estate.

Prof. Smith left last night for New York, whence he will sail for Europe. He had nothing to say before going.

ON LOCAL RAILROADS.

Clover Leaf and D. & M. Appraisements.

The Rumored T., C. & C. Sale—Ann Arbor Earnings—A Word About Mr. Hall—Wool Rates Reduced.

Auditor Cretes of Allen county, has been in Toledo this week appraising the Clover eaf and D. & M. railroad. The Clover Leaf was appraised at $6,000 per mile, an increase of $500 per mile over last years assessment, side tracks at $1,200 per mile and the Delphos shops at $20,500.

The D. & M. was assessed $11,000 per mile for the main line and $2,500 for side tracks; rolling stock $1,800 and the Lima shops $57,500.

Side Tracked Again.

The sale of the T., C. & C. railroad to the Big Four, has been side-tracked again.

Late information is to the effect that all negotiations between the presidents of the two roads have been declared off and the matter will rest for a time.

Right They Are.

General Passenger Agent J. M. Hall, of the Wheeling & Lake Erie, is at Piqua this week, says the Norwalk Experiment. Mr. Hall wears the blue button in his left lapel and never misses a Grand Army encampment, and those who attended the Steubenville encampment last year can testify that he is as useful as he is gallant on these occasions.

Wool Rates Reduced.

The East St. Louis East-bound Traffic association has decided to reduce wool rates, the reduction to take effect May 15. The reductions will apply to wool in bales or sacks, 10,000 pounds minimum, and are as follows: East St. Louis to New York, via all rail routes, 61 1-2 cents; Boston, 63 1-2 cents; Philadelphia, 59 1-2 cents; Baltimore, 58 1-2 cents; via lake and rail routes, 49 1-2 cents, 50 1-2 cents, 46 1-2 cents and 45 1-2 cents respectively.

Ann Arbor Earnings.

The earnings of the Toledo, Ann Arbor & North Michigan passenger department for the first week in May, 1892, were $4,285. The earnings for the same week of last year were $3,528. This shows an increase of $756.

Cinders Here and There.

The car inspectors give a dance at Eversman's hall this evening.

A change of time will go into effect on the Toledo division of the C., H. V. & T. Sunday.

Mr. Frank Hope, of the Michigan Central, has accepted a position with A. W. Colton.

General Manager Ashley, of the T., A. A. & N. M., has returned from his western trip.

The Toledo and Detroit Railway Superintendents' association will meet in Toledo Saturday at 10 a. m.

Commercial Agent C. T. Wight, of the B. & O., and General Freight Agent Booth, of the Wheeling, have returned from Chicago.

The C., H. V. & T. has received its last installment of five new locomotives. All trains are now being equipped with air signals and will be ready for use in a few days.

INSURING A MESSIAH.

A Chicago Life Insurance Agent Tries to Make a False Christ Take a Policy.

A Chicago life insurance agent was bold enough to recently endeavor to make Schweinfurth, a self-styled "Christ," accept a policy. Telling his experience to a reporter for the Chicago Tribune, the agent said:

"I was in Rockford on insurance business and Schweinfurth was pointed out to me on the street. I told my friends that I would go out and see if I could not write him a policy. They laughed at me. I procured a carriage and started. When I arrived I rang the bell. It was answered by one of the 'angels.' I inquired for her 'Lord' and asked if I could see him. She said I could and invited me in. The 'angel' conducted me to a beautifully furnished room, where there was an organ and chair, by which I judged that it was the worship-room. I waited ten minutes for Schweinfurth to come down from his apartments upstairs. When he appeared he shook hands with me cordially. His opening remark was that when he first saw me he took me for a Catholic priest. I replied that I had no pretensions in that line.

"'In plain words,' said I, 'I am a life-insurance agent, Mr. Schweinfurth.'

"He answered something to the effect that he had thought of the subject a great deal, but had decided not to insure his life. He intimated that he did not know that he had any one to whom to leave the insurance. I answered that it was a good form of investment. He interrupted me by saying that he did not understand the subject. I thought it strange that a man of his pretensions would ask the meaning of anything, but, to satisfy his curiosity, I consented to go back to the sixteenth century and make a full explanation.

"He appeared to be deeply interested in my explanation, which lasted about an hour and a half. He seemed to be drinking in every word, and appeared sorry when I was through. He made figures as I went along and calculated the profits as I explained them.

"He finally declined to insure just at that time, but said he would take the matter under serious consideration. He said that he might step into my Chicago office and take a $20,000 policy as an investment. He talked with me like an everyday, business-like man. Evidently he did not think me a likely candidate for a male 'angel,' and said nothing about his religion. He has a sharp, piercing eye, but I did not notice any hypnotic influence. Maybe he didn't think it worth his while to hypnotize a life insurance agent.

"He was dressed as sleek as a mink. He wore a richly-embroidered silk dressing-coat. His trousers and vest were of fine woolen material. On his feet were an elegant pair of patent leather shoes. I did not see any 'angels,' except the one that let me in."

CUTTING AFFAIR AT OBERLIN.

A DISASTROUS BLAZE

Sweeps Over the City of Upper Marlboro.

Heavy Damage Caused by a Conflagration Which Started in a Grocery.

Upper Marlboro, Md., May 12.—This morning at 2:30 o'clock the cry of fire aroused the town residents and soon it was apparent that the town was doomed again to destruction as it was six years ago.

The large grocery store occupied by Edlevitch & Co., corner of Main and Second streets, was wrapped in flames and the people turned their attention to saving the office and press rooms of the Marlboro Gazette.

The flames, however, soon gutted the entire building. The files of papers since 1836 were lost.

Adjoining the Gazette stood a frame dwelling which soon ignited and was destroyed.

Opposite the flames caught in the new truck house but the building was saved and prevented the further spread of the fire in this direction.

The lawyers' block on Main street and the Marlboro hotel was in imminent danger, but were saved from destruction, although badly damaged. Several persons were more or less injured .Loss $60,000; partly insured

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Call for Police Protection.

To the Editor: Is it true that people within the city limits are entitled to police protection? West Washington street, from Twenty-second street to Lawrence avenue, is a portion of the city where a policeman's feet have never trod, at least while on duty. Last night a family of women on the street were badly frightened by a couple of drunken toughs who threw beer bottles against the doors, rang the bell, tried the doors and windows, which were securely fastened, and this the occupants knew, but they put in three very miserable hours from midnight till morning before the orgies ceased.

There are no saloons near, which is probably one reason why it is never visited by a blue-coat, but it is in the city limits, is thickly settled, and should be patrolled. X.

AN INSURANCE CASE.

It is on Trial in Monroe County and Involves an Interesting Point in Law.

Martins Ferry, O. May 12.—At Woodsfield, Monroe county, a very interesting lawsuit is in progress, it being the case of John H. Roemer, as administrator, v the Providenec-Washington Insurance company.

In 1884 plaintiff's father was a prominent and wealthy merchant at Clarington, Monroe county. He suddenly disappeared and could be traced no farther than the Union station, Pittsburg, and has never been heard from since.

His large business was continued in his name, and his sons and his wife kept up the insurance on his property in the name of their husband and father.

A few days after the expiration of his seven years (when a man is presumed in law to be dead if not heard from) the property was insured by the defendant and the policy was issued in the name of the original owner.

A loss occurred last fall, an administrator has been appointed and sues to recover the insurance. The company claims that at the time the policy was issued the man was presumed to be dead, not being heard from for seven years; that, being dead, ther could be no contract, and that by reason thereof the compny is not liable. The case will probably go to the Supreme court of Ohio.

PINKHAM'S . PROVERBIAL . PHILOSOPHY . . .

A Defective Link Weakens a Strong Chain.

The female organization is a series of links, so to speak. Note the nervous irritability of one, the restlessness of another, the inability to sleep, and perhaps secret suffering. It means that a link of a chain is weakened. Those ailments are promptly overcome by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it conquers all those weaknesses and ailments so prevalent among our women.

DEAR FRIEND OF WOMEN.—I have derived so great benefit from the use of your Vegetable Compound that I recommend it in the strongest terms. I consider it superior to any other preparation for Female Complaints.—Mrs. E. A. BECK, 18 Willoughby Ave., Brooklyn, N.Y.

SUCCESS.

The stoutest ship may breast the gale,
And still be driven back;
What though to reach the port she fail,
Shall we declare she could not sail,
Because she had to tack?

When storms belate and plagues impede,
When aches and ills betide,
Ambition's goal may not be won—
Yet hast thou bravely, nobly done
If thou hast bravely tried.

"He nobly does who nobly dares"
When trials sore oppress.
Whose perseverance naught can shake,
Though failure follows in his wake,
His failure is success.

The fiercest battles are to fight,
The strongest forts to scale,
Sometimes the bravest heroes fall,
Sometimes the truest lives of all,
Are lived by ones who fail.

Missionaries have done a good work in old India, where the people were kinder to brutes than to men. Lepers in India were treated with shocking inhumanity before Christianity entered the country. Many of them were buried alive. The English rulers have put a stop to this custom, and for 14 years there has been a special Christian mission to the 135,000 lepers in India.

A snake has been found in Ireland at last. A Belfast newspaper says that a snake seven and a half feet long and nearly seven inches in circumference has been killed at Nora's Glen. It was taken to a contractor's yard in town, where the reptile was inspected by a large number of people. The solitary snake of Ireland will be preserved in a glass case for the inspection of future generations.

The lot of a German librarian is not a happy one in these times. In addition to his usual duties, he must read every word in hundreds of newspapers; otherwise he may be prosecuted for lese majeste. Secretary Blaine has decided to send an interesting exhibit to the World's Fair at Chicago. It will consist of the original Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States, the Articles of Federation, the famous protest of the Philadelphia Carpenters' Company to King George III, and other documents which are the heirlooms of the country itself, of our national history. Those will not be shown by fac simile, but by originals. They will be shipped in steel caskets and guarded by soldiers while en route and at the fair.

According to the French newspapers a chemical engineer near Nantes has been making some experiments in potato growing which exhibit rather remarkable results. He has succeeded in getting a return of 42 tons an acre, without using any of the improved or expensive varieties. This is how he claims to have done it. He plowed his ground deeply and dressed it richly. Before planting the seed potatoes he steeped them for 24 hours in a bath composed of sulphate of amonia and nitrate of potash, of each six pounds to 25 gallons of water. He allowed them to stand afterward 24 hours before planting, so as to allow the germs time to swell.

Bay rum is manufactured exclusively in Dominica from the dried leaves of pimenta acris. It is procured by distillation, and this in a simple manner. The leaves are picked from the trees and dried. In this state they are then placed in a retort, which is filled with water, and the process of distillation is set in motion. The vaporis condensed in the usual way, and forms what is known as "bay oil", a very small quantity of which is required for a puncheon of rum. The manufacture of bay rum is carried on at the northern end of Dominica, and proves a lucrative business to those engaged in it, as the plants are plentiful, and grow almost exclusively in that district.

Bryn Mawr has sent Vassar a second invitation to join an inter-collegiate athletic league, to hold private contests in tennis and gymnasium work. The purpose of the league is to increase the interest of college women in athletics and to increase inter-collegiate life. The students of Bryn Mawr have the full approval of their faculty to such a league, and desire to hold their first contest at Vassar early in June, 1892. While the Vassar girls felt confident of their skill in the tennis court, but they feared to compete in gymnastic work, as Bryn Mawr has made a special effort in that line during the past winter and held a fine exhibition of exercises this spring. The invitation to Vassar has been declined.

Jonas de Turk found a rare Indian relic in the shape of a "poison pot" on the Raudenbush farm, near Poplar Neck, in Cumru township, Pa. The poison pot is a large flat stone with a circular pit in the center an inch deep and two inches in diameter, bearing unmistakable evidence of having been carved out laboriously with a sharp flint instrument. It still shows plain traces of the poisons and acids which were mixed in it and used in the poisoning of arrows. The poisons extracted from the sacs of copperheads and rattlesnakes and from certain deadly plants were used in concocting the baneful fluids. The poison arrows were employed by the Indians in killing their enemies in war and in shooting dangerous wild animals. Few poison pots of that kind are in existence, even in the most complete museum collections of Indian relics.

THE SEVEN SIMPLETONS.

One of Daukha's favorite stories is the following ingenuous legend:

Once upon a time seven simpletons were going along a road. And behold they came to a big puddle of rainwater which lay still and bright under the sky. And looking into the puddle, they could see the clouds reflected far below, and wisely concluded that the puddle was very deep. Whereat they were much puzzled as to how they should get across. But the eldest simpleton, who was the boldest of the party, said: "Let us make a string, each holding the dhoti of the man in front of him, and I going first. And I will leap as far as I can, and do you others follow me. So they all leaped together into the puddle and got safely across, not, however, without being covered with mud from head to foot.

When they were safely on the other side it suddenly occurred to the eldest simpleton that one of their number was missing, having evidently been drowned in the puddle. So he counted once, twice, thrice. But as he left himself out each time, the result each time was that there were only six simpletons. So he bid each count in turn, and as each counted after the fashion of the eldest simpleton, each found that the number was six. And yet they could not, for the life of them make out who was missing. And they were much dismayed and perplexed.

At this juncture there came to them a wise man, and to him they told their doubts and difficulty. And looking at their simple faces and the shallow puddle wherein they had muddled themselves, he saw his way to profit by their foolishness. So with an air of much urbanity, he promised to restore the missing simpleton if all seven would agree to work for him a year and a day without payment. To which they gladly consented. On this, the wise man, taking a betel nut, cut it in seven pieces and bid the simpletons count the pieces, which they did, and, behold they were seven. Then to each man he gave a piece, and asked: "How can ye be six, when to each I have given a betel, and there were seven pieces of betel?" Whereat their minds were much relieved, and they began to toil with and work for the wise man.

Now the labor of simpletons is a trial to wise men, and so the event proved in this case. The first task they performed was the harvesting of the winter rice. They reaped and bound, and brought the sheaves home, and asked the wise man where they should put them. But the wise man was occupied with his own thoughts, and said: "Ask my old woman, and put them where she says." So they went to the old woman and asked her. But the old womn was busy cookng her husband's dinner. So she cried: "Drat you and your sheaves! Put them on my head!" Which without any hesitation they all did, so that the dinner was spoiled and the old woman died, being smothered by the paddy. And when the wise man came in hungry and asked for his wife, the simpletons told him what had happened. And when he was vexed, they asked with simple faces why he was angry with them for obeying orders.

Then the wise man, seeing no remedy, bid them go and bury the old woman. So they made a sledge of bamboos, and putting the old woman on it, started off like the wind, so as to get home the quicker to supper. But they went so fast through the bamboo grove that the woman was swept off the sledge by a bamboo spike. But this they did not perceive, for as soon as they got to the place their one thought was to get a grave dug as fast as possible. To this work, accordingly they addressed themselves. And when the grave was ready, behold the woman was gone. And they said: "This is a very wicked old woman. Her husband orders her to be buried, and, look, she is not dead at all, but has run away. What are we to do now?" So they looked about them.

Now there was another old woman herding cattle close by, and seeing that they could not go home to supper without obeying orders and burying an old woman, they buried her in spite of her screams and struggles. And then they came home and told the wise man what they had done.

The next day the wise man bid the seven simpletons go and plough above the great banian tree, meaning higher up the hill. But they set to work conscientiously to haul the oxen and ploughs into the top of the tree with ropes. But the ropes broke and the oxen were killed. And again they told the wise man what they had done. And when he cursed them for a pack of fools, they again pleaded that they had only done as they were told.

And many other things they did, always by the wise man's orders, until the wise man could stand it no longer. So he told the simpletons that he wanted to make a dug-out canoe, and that they must cut down a simul tree for the purpose. "But," he said, "if it fall on the ground it will break, and then where will my canoe be? When ye see the tree tottering to its fall run ye under it and receive it on your shoulders." To which they agreed, and when the tree fell they ran under it and were duly killed—all except one, who, being the strongest, stood ready to receive the trunk. For the branches kept the trunk off the ground and saved the simpleton's life. And he, seeing his brothers dead, was possessed with rage, and taking up the axe, cut the wise man's head off, which proves that even a single simpleton is a match for a wise man if he have but an axe in his hand.—Allahabad Pioneer.

PEOPLE'S PARTY.

They Are Running Short of Funds at the Start.

Omaha, May 12.—The executive committee of the people's party national committee met at the board of trade. Those present were Chairman Taubeneck, J. H. Davis of Texas, H. Vincent of Indiana, and W. H. Miller. Ignatius Donnelly was expected later.

The chief topic discussed was whether Omaha can accommodate the national convention. The banks and railroads have refused to subscribe to the fund, but people's party adherents, under the leadership of John L. Webster (republican) are hustling to raise funds, as they claim that the action of the banks and railroads will be the best campaign argument that can be advanced. The banks and railroads base their refusal to subscribe on the ground that the platform of the people's party is inimical to their interests.

LIMA NATIONAL.

Complete satisfaction is assured to invalid mothers if they will take Johann Hoff's Malt Extract. It is a bar to that debilitating languid feeling which seems to be the twin of motherhood. It takes away that thin faded look and builds up strength and life. Not only does the mother feel better, but the child will be benefited, as the milk organs are much strengthened by its use. Johann Hoff's Malt Extract compels the secretion of milk, so that even weak women can feel assured that the child will not lack proper food. In fact, the entire nutrition of the system is benefited. Look out for counterfeits. See that Johann Hoff's signature is on the neck of every bottle. Eisner & Mendelson Co., N. Y., Sole Agents.

METHODIST CONFERENCE

Plenty of Resolutions Dumped on the Committees.

The Contest for the Church Editorship.

General Debate Now Going on Among the Ministers and Lay Delegates at Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., May 12.—Bishop Joyce presided over the Methodist general conference yesterday afternoon, using a gavel made of pieces of wood taken from the Mastersen house, near Lexington, Ky., in which Bishop Asbury held the first conference in Kentucky.

There were many vacant seats when the gathering was called to order, and as the vacant seats generally represented the more prominent members it showed that considerable caucusing was going on.

Apropos of this, Rev. W. K. Bean, of Omaha, has publicly withdrawn from the race for the editorship of the St. Louis Advocate, and as his strength goes to Creighton, that gentleman has a large lead.

The committee on episcopacy has decided to recommend that four new bishops be created in defiance of the official action of the episcopal board, which was against increasing its members.

This was no doubt brought about by the candidates themselves. The most prominent candidates for bishop are: Drs. Peck, Cincinnati; Hamilton, Boston; McCabe, New York; Leonard, Ohio; Whitfield, Iowa; Payne, New York; Bristol, Chicago; Neeley, Philadelphia; Swindell, Philadelphia; King, New York; Hartzell, New Orleans. These men make the race an interesting one.

Dr. Gray, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution asking that the mode of electing editors and officers of the general conference be changed in order to economize time and to do away with the odium of politics that may cling to the contests waged for the positions. The resolution asks that the book committee elect the editors and secretary of the Sunday School union, the secretary of the missions by mission committee, etc.

Dr. Gray, of Philadelphia, offered this resolution:

"Whereas, There is a profound and widespread conviction among our preachers and people that the efficiency of the episcopacy will be greatly increased and the growth of the church and her institutions greatly promoted by the assignment of each bishop to a prescribed territory for a period of years; and,

"Whereas, The general supervision of the whole work by the bishops severally is practically impossible.

"Resolved, That the committee of episcopacy shall consider and report to the general conference on or before May 17 upon the advisability of dividing the territory into as many episcopal districts, less one, as there are effective bishops at the close of this general conference, said districts to be composed as far as practicable of contiguous conferences.

"Resolved, That such divisions shall leave the senior bishop without a prescribed district; that he may preside at all conferences in case of death or disability of any bishop; that the board of bishops shall so arrange the work as to assign the same bishop to the supervision of the same district during the period of four years."

Dr. Webb, of East Ohio, offered this resolution:

"Whereas, There are circumstances which clearly show that the time limit in our pastorate works seriously against its fullest usefulness; and

Whereas, The annual appointment secures all needful check and safeguard to our itinerancy.

"The annual appointment secures all needful check and safeguard to our itinerancy.

"Resolved, That the conference remove the time limit from the pastorates in the pastorates in the interest and the good of th's church."

Both resolutions were referred without debate.

Other resolutions were alike of importance. One of these looked to the curtailment of membership on committees, the present bodies proving unwieldy. Another spoke of the growing discontent among the church people because of the disinclination in some quarters to kneel at prayers, many electing to keep their seats. The resolution asks that a new service be adopted which would make it obligatory to all to kneel in prayer.

The colored delegates offered a resolution that the colored members of the church express their loyalty to the church and repudiate the rumors that the colored people are trying to effect a separation and organize a church of their own. This brought up a regular debate in the colored ranks and was referred to a committee.

The lay delegates, through John Field, of Philadelphia, presented a memorial to the bishops and conference in regard to equal representation. The document sets forth that in 63 conferences equal representation has already been adopted, but the older conferences are not so favored.

It calls attention to the fact that the older conferences are represented in the ratio of one lay delegate to 26,451 members, while the new conferences have one delegate to 3,542 members. The memorial asks that this inequality be remedied by giving the laymen equal voice in the conference, as the Methodist church is the only one not so doing. The memorial was referred to the committee on equal representation.

The resolution on the Columbian exposition was to the effect that it were better never to open the fair if it was to be opened on Sunday.

All cases of weak or lame back, backache, rheumatism, will find relief by wearing one of Carter's Smart Weed and Belladonna Backache Plasters. Price 25 cents. Try them.

OHIO G. A. R.

I. F. Mack Elected Department Commander—Capt. Dowling Honored.

Piqua, O., May 12.—The election of officers at the state meeting of the Ohio G. A. R., resulted as follows: I. F. Mack, commander-in-chief; J. W. R. Cline, Springfield, senior vice commander; W. H. Surles, East Liverpool, junior vice commander; John Tenny, Weston, chaplain; J. T. Booth, Cincinnati, surgeon; F. A. Kitchen, Toledo, O. G. Daniels, Mt. Vernon, H. B. Spangle, Springfield, J. B. Sampson, Cincinnati, C. M. Bancroft, Columbus, council of administration.

Ex-President R. B. Hayes, was unanimously chosen delegate-at-large to the national encampment at Washington, with W. B. Folger, of Cincinnati, alternate.

The department of Ohio presented Past Commander P. H. Dowling, of Toledo, an exceedingly handsome gold badge at the afternoon session. Col. A. L. Conger made the presentation speech and the recipient responded very gracefully.

By unanimous action the encampment indorsed Gen. S. H. Hurst, of Chillicothe, past commander of the state, as worthy of the honor of national commander, and instructed the delegates to vote and work for him.

W. I. Squire, of Toledo, presented and had passed a resolution cutting out past department commanders from membership in the national encampment. This action has been roundly censured by many of the old veterans and there is a disposition to have the action rescinded. The resolution was defeated at Steubenville last year.

H. SLOAT FASSETT.

Milwaukee, May 12.—Henry C. Payne, member of the republican national committee, said to-day that H. Sloat Fassett, of New York, would succeed J. S. Clarkson as chairman of the committee, providing Mr. Fassett would accept the office.

IT IS NOT WHAT WE SAY.

AT THE SEWING SOCIETY.

In everal of the churches in this city there are flourishing societies that meet weekly, to make clothes for the poor of the church or missions. This noble work is one that is little known, yet it accomplishes a vast amount of good, and too much praise cannot be given to those who devote an afternoon of each week to this purpose. In another sense, these societies are a benefit to the members, for the weekly meetings give an opportunity to discuss church work, current topics, and other matters of special interest.

In one corner of the church parlors, the other afternoon, half a dozen ladies were busily sewing, when one of them said:

"Did you notice how miserable Mrs. Johnnson looked last Sunday?"

"Yes, she is evidently wearing herself out," replied one. "I gave her some advice yesterday that I hope she will take. You know how near I came to being sick last spring. It was dyspepsia and spring weather combined that ailed me.

"Why, I felt completely dragged out all the while. I didn't have any appetite, couldn't sleep well at night, had heartburn, a gnawing at my stomach, and felt tired all the while."

"Did your head ache?" asked an interested listener.

"Fit to split. And my back pained me, too. That was because my system was out of order. I tried senna and pills, but didn't get any better."

"What advice did you give Mrs. Johnson? Tell us, for I believe half of the women, and men, too, are troubled as you were, especially in the spring."

"Mrs. Johnson and I compared symptoms, and they were nearly the same. I told her that my husband brought home a bottle of medicine one night that he had seen advertised, and said he was going to use it, and I had better. I laughed at him, but finally tried it to please him. After taking it about a week, I slept like my child, had a good appetite, and hardly an ache or pain, and in three weeks I felt better than I had for years.

"It was Paine's celery compound that I used, and although it is advertised in the papers, I always speak a good word for it, as I know it isn't at all like the ordinary sarsaparillas or bitters. It is said to be a physician's prescription, and it certainly did me more good than the average prescription."

That meeting was of the greatest value to several of the members, for they profited by the experience so frankly told and are to-day using the same means of relief. Their aches and pans, despondent and tired feelings, and distress after eating will soon yield to its gentle, invigorating influence.

MISSOURI DEMOCRATS.

They Declare for Cleveland and Free Silver.

Sedalia, Mo., May 11.—Each incoming train last night and this morning brought large delegations of politicians and statesmen, who will participate in the democratic convention to be held here to-day. The convention elected delegates to the national convention at Chicago and adopted a platform endorsing Cleveland, advocating tariff reform and free coinage of silver.

The delgates were up bright and early this morning and notwithstanding the chilly and unpleasant weather were busily engaged in the task of soliciting votes and pledges for their respective candidates.

WOMAN'S CLUB.

Chicago, May 11.—The auditorium of Central Music hall was a perfect sea of faces when President Charlotte Emerson Brown called the first meeting of the Federation of Woman's clubs to order at 10:30 this morning.

Dr. Sarah Hackett Stevenson of this city delivered an address of welcome to which the president responded. Following the reading of various reports, Mrs. Brown delivered the biennial address.

INDIANS ON THE RAMPAGE

One Hundred Cheyennes Put on the Paint.

They Have Given White Settlers Ten Days to Get Out of "F" County Under Pain of Death.

Guthrie, O. T., May 12.—Gov. Seay yesterday received dispatches from the Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservations stating that about 100 Cheyenne Indians were off their allotments and had driven a number of people out of county "F."

These Indians claim that they never signed the treaty for the sale of their lands, and that the whites must get out of the country inside of 10 days under pain of death.

A large number of the Indians refuse to come to the agency, and unless they are controlled at once serious trouble will surely ensue.

SOME EXCITEMENT.

Two Surprises in the House of Representatives.

Washington, D. C., May 12.—There were two surprises in the house yesterday afternoon. The first was the striking from the sundry civil bill the appropriation of $620,500 for the purchase of a site and the commencement of a building for a new mint at Philadelphia, and the second, the sudden springing in the house of the silver question by Mr. Bland in the shape of an amendment to the same bill, requiring the coinage and issue in payment of appropriations of the silver bullion now in the treasury. The amendment was ruled out, but Mr. Bland announced that he would renew the amendment at another place in the bill.

KNOCKED OFF THE TRACK.

Tiffin, O., May 12.—Albert Lowmaster was knocked off the railway track by a Toledo & Ohio Central train at McCutchenville and sustained injuries that will prove fatal. He is 22 years old and unmarried.

ALL FOR CLEVELAND.

Sedalia, Mo., May 11.—The Sixth congressional democratic convention to-day elected Wm. Steele, of Johnston county, and J. D. Allen, of Bates county, as delegates to the Chicago convention. The seventh congressional district democrats elected E. C. Moore, of Boone county, and J. C. Edwards, of Saline county, as delegates to Chicago. All are pronounced Cleveland men.

DAMAGE BY FLOODS.

Cleveland, O., May 11.—A report has reached this city that a cloudburst at Bedford, a small place south of here, had filled a creek with an immense volume of water and caused much damage to dwellings and farm buildings.

MURPHY IDENTIFIES HIM.

Columbus, O., May 11.—Chief of Police Murphy, from a picture received at a late hour last night, recognizes the corpse of the horse thief shot at Lancaster as that of J. H. Sheridan, a convict pardoned from the penitentiary by Governor Campbell.

ADVANCE IN LIMA OIL.

Lima, O., May 11.—The Standard Oil company again advanced the price of Lima crude oil to-day 2 1-2c, making the present price 37 1-2c per barrel. The producers think it will advance to 50c within a month, when the drill will begin to bounce in the Ohio oil fields.

DR. GAYLORD ACQUITTED.

Sandusky, O., May 12.—The jury returned a verdict for acquittal in the case against Dr. Wm. Gaylord. The doctor was indicted for performing a criminal operation upon Mrs. Mary Jones.

BOTH IN PRISON.

Columbus, O., May 11.—Patsy Elliott, who, with his brother, William J., murdered A. C. Osborne and W. L. Hughes in the celebrated newspaper tragedy one year ago, was taken to the penitentiary yesterday.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

NEW GRADE OF CARRIERS

Something for Postal Clerks to Read.

Senator Sawyer Introduces a Bill in Washington of General Interest.

Washington, May 11.—Senator Sawyer has introduced a bill prepared at the postoffice department creating a new grade of letter carriers, to receive $1,200 per annum, and empowering the postmaster-general to appoint from the carrier force a district superintendent to every division numbering not less than 50 nor more than 100 carriers, whose duty is to superintend the collection and delivery of mail matter within his district.

The bill provides that all promotions of letter carriers shall be made upon ascertained fitness and efficiency under relations to be prescribed by the postmaster-general. An appropriation of $250,000 is carried by the bill to make its provisions effective.

A LINE OF ACTION.

The People's Party Formulates a Program.

Washington, May 11.—In the morning hour Mr. Caruth endeavored to have a bill passed for the relief of Louisville and Logan, Hardin and Hart counties, Ky., and Simpson and Davidson counties, Tenn., which provides for the return of taxes illegally collected assessed by the United States upon railroad stock owned by the corporations, but no quorum developed. It came to the front under order for tellers, and the bill was passed.

Mr. Savre made the conference report on the urgent deficiency bill for the year ending June 30, 1892, which was agreed to. Mr. Sayre's explained that the increased amount carried by the bill over the amount contained as it passed the house, and the senate, was due to the necessity for providing for court expenses.

Mr. Beltzhoover called for the regular order but Mr. Watson, of Georgia, asked him to temporarily withdraw the demand. He said there seemed to be an arrangement by which certain democrats were recognized and then certain republicans That was fair; but there were three parties in the house, and the representatives of the people's party appealed to the sense of fairness of both the other parties for a slight participation in the disposition of business under unanimous consent.

He wanted to introduce a resolution calling on the committee on ways and means to report to the house the subtreasury bill.

Mr. Beltzhoover said he had made the demand for the regular order that the necessary legislation may be enacted so as to permit adjournment by August 1st. He also wanted the regular order in the interest of deliberate and intelligent disposition of business.

Only this week a bill had passed the house for the payment of $6,000 to a claimant, which bill had become a law three years ago and the claimant had been paid and receipted for his money. Therefore, in view of all this, he should continue to demand the regular order.

Mr. Watson gave notice then that the people's party representatives would in the future oppose all requests for unanimous consent.

Committees were called for reports and the sundry civil appropriation bill was taken up in committee of the whole (Mr. Lester, of Georgia, in the chair).

In the Senate.

Washington, May 11.—Mr. Sherman, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, introduced two amendments which he said he intended to offer to the diplomatic and consular bill, one restoring the appropriation for the bureau of American republics to the full amount and the other restoring the appropriation for the international continental survey stricken out by the house.

Mr. Quay called up a bill authorizing the secretary of war to cause a survey to be made for a ship canal connecting the waters of Lake Erie and the Ohio river, commencing at a point near the city of Erie and ending at Pittsburg, Pa., The bill was passed.

Mr. McPharson called up and the senate passed, a bill appropriating $30,000 for a monumental column to aid the Princeton, New Jersey, monument association, in the erection of a monumental column to commemorate the revolutionary battle of Princeton.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold everywhere, or sent by mail.

POUNDING THE PRICES

Short Sellers Hitting the Markets.

Wheat Trading in Toledo Light.

Quotations from all Over the World Gathered for the People Who Read the Bee.

The receipts of wheat to-day at Minneapolis and Duluth are very light, say 104,516 bus.; at five other western points 90,016 bus.

On the corresponding Thursday in 1891 the receipts were 84.173 bus. The export clearances yesterday at four Atlantic ports were wheat 279,477 bus., and flour to an aggregate of 480,000 bus. Exports of corn 210,874 bus., and of oats 14,420 bus.

English markets are dull and at Liverpool lower for wheat. Corn firm.

Wheat Prices and Crops 1892.

In these speculative days of ours the future value of wheat is discounted—or intended to be—by present crop promises, and other conditions bearing on the question. In view of the world's outlook for the crop of 1892 what is the significance of present prices of July and August wheat? Are they reasonably or unreasonably high? That is the question. Beginning with a review of our own country, the salient features are a late crop of winter wheat on about the area of 1891. The estimated condition promises a yield seventy-five to one hundred millions of winter wheat below the crop of 1891. The government report estimates the seeding of spring wheat in all the states at 64.6 of the average area. Present conditions do not justify expectations of a full crop of spring wheat.

In England the crop is late and the area in wheat much reduced. If crops on European continent produce an average, the harvest promises to be late. Late harvests on both sides of the ocean means 50,000,000 bus. more wheat required out of the last crop. India is estimated to have 20,000,000 bus. less for export than last year. Russia nobody knows yet.

A salient point in connection with the above is that the reserves of Russia, Germany and France, at the end of the campaign will be less than average. All these points are worth considering.

The Markets To-day.

Opening prices of wheat indicated firmness and a shade better prices, but markets are dull, and at times weak. The weakness comes of pounding the price by short sellers, while commercially the position is strong, according to our judgment. The fluctuations have been within narrow limits, but in the last hour of the session prices favored sellers.

Corn has been maintained and closes with a small gain over yesterday.

Foreign markets give no great changes. Paris is stronger and others weaker.

A cable from India reports farmers refusing to sell at the low prices left to them, but it is as easy to send such a cable as some other, costing the same.

In New York May wheat closed 1-8 lower and July 1-4 higher. May corn 1-8 lower and July 5-8 higher.

In Chicago May wheat closed 1-2c and July 3-8c higher. May corn 1-4c and July 2-8c up. May oats steady.

In Toledo.—The business in wheat has been light. In May and June the trading was especially limited. We have no new feature to refer to save what has been noted above. The changes in price have been light on July and August wheat, closing prices show a gain of 1-4c, as compared with yesterday. Nothing done on the call. After the call May wheat sold at 90 1-2c, and closed at 91c bid, a gain of 1-2c. June sold at 89 1-4c, and at close 3-4c was bid, a gain of 1-4c. July sold at 85 1-2 to 1-4, and closed at ... bid. August sold at 84c and closed at 84 1-2c bid.

Cash wheat was very quiet but firm. Yesterday a cargo was placed at the seaboard. No. 2 soft sold to-day at 90 1-2c to 90 3-4c, and at close 91c was the price; No. 3 R. and wheat at 88c; rejected No. 2 at 78c.

Corn—No. 2 at 45c; July, 44 1-2c; No. 3 yellow at 45c. Nothing in oats and rye.

Close in New York.

New York, May 12.—Flour steady; city mill extra $4.00@4 75 for West Indies; superfine, $2.35@3.00; fine, $1.70@2.50.

Wheat irregular; No. 2 red winter, cash, 90 3-4c; May, 89 3-8c; June, 89 7-8c; July, 90 1-2c.

Corn strong; No. 2 mixed, cash, 55 1-4c; May, 54 3-4c; June, 50 1-2c; July, 49 1-2c.

Oats steady; No. 2 mixed, cash, 35c; May, 34 3-4c; July, 34 1-2c.

Rye dull but steady at 80@81c.

Barley neglected. Molasses steady at 30@36c. Sugar—refined quiet; cut loaf and crushed 5@5 1-8c; powdered 4 5-8@4 3-4c. Coffee steady; fair rio cargoes, 15 3-4c. Rice nominal. Pork dull but steady; new mess $10.50@11.00. Lard quiet; $6.39 July; $6.65 August. Butter steady; new creamery state 19@21c; western 19@20c. Cheese dull and weak; new state factory 10 1-2c. Eggs dull; state new 16c; western 15 3-4c. Turpentine dull at 32 1-2@32 3-4c. Rosin steady; strained to good $1.45@1.50. Tallow dull; prime city 4 3-4c. Petroleum nominal. Freights quiet; grain to Liverpool, steam, 2 1-2

Money easy at 1 1-2@2 per cent. Exchange steady; posted rates 487@488 1-2; actual rates, 486 1-4@486 1-2 for 60 days, and 487 1-2@487 3-4 for demand.

Governments steady; currency, 6s, 109 bid; 4s, coup. 116 1-2 bid; extended 2s, registered, 100 bid.

Stocks were dull this morning. The tone of speculation was firm and most stocks at noon were fractionally higher than they closed yesterday. Chicago Gas was weak and declined 1 1-8. At this writing the market is dull. Sales to noon 104,000 shares.

Detroit Close.

Detroit, May 12. —Close: Wheat—No. 2 red cash, 90 1-2c; May, 90 1-2c; July, 86c; No. 1 white cash, 89 3-4c. Corn—No. 2 cash, 45c. Oats—No. 2 cash, 31 1-2c.

Chicago Close.

Chicago, May 12.—Close: Wheat—May, 82 1-4c; July, 81 7-8c. Corn—May, 47 1-2c; July, 43 1-2c. Oats—May, 30c; July, 29 3-4c. Pork—July, $9 77 1-2. Lard—July, $6 32 1-2. Ribs—July, $5 85@5 87 1-2.

SENT HIM TO HELL.

While in a Hypnotic State Last Evening.

Dr. Flint's Remarkable Performance at Wheeler's—The Kendalls Coming—Other Attractions at the Theaters.

Last evening Dr. Flint, the mesmerist at Wheeler's, placed a young man who went on the stage, in a hypnotic state and then made him believe that he saw hell and all its furies. Dr. F. S. Towers and a gentleman by the name of Bolles went on the stage as a committee from the audience to examine the subject before and immediately after the test. The subject first blanched with fear, trembled from head to foot and turned white, red and black in the face in succession, his muscles at the same time undergoing terrible contortions. In vain he tried to escape the fiends that pursued him, and at last he sank exhausted on the stage. Then Dr. Towers made an examination. He found the pulse too fast to count; the skin was vari-colored and waxy. When, a second later, Dr. Flint snapped his fingers and restored the subject to his normal condition he was all right immediately and none the worse for the terrible ordeal through which he had passed in the hypnotic state. He laughed and walked to his seat as if nothing had happened. A number of ladies who could not stand witnessing the test left the theater. Dr. Flint appears every evening this week, Sunday included.

Kendall Makes Them Laugh.

Amusement seekers should not miss seeing "A Pair of Kids" at the People's this week. There is a quaintness about Mr. Kendall's style of acting that is irresistible and the audience is kept in continual good humor throughout the performance. The dry fun he seems to possess in an inexhaustible degree catches everybody.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendal Coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendal, who, in their two American engagements, have won the esteem of those who delight in high-class drama artistically presented by talented people, will make their final appearance in Toledo at Wheeler's opera house on Monday, May 16, in "A Scrap of Paper." Those who missed their finished performances early in the season will have an opportunity of seeing them, while those who did attend will have a chance of judging of their versatility in a wider range of character. The sale of seats opens to-day.

Next Week at the People's.

Of the Vendetta, the attraction at the People's next week, the Washington Post says:

"The Vendetta," a strong melo-drama, received its first Washington hearing last night. The plot of the play is a most complete one, and the action of the play admits of many changes of scene. The chambers of M. Gerard at night was very fine, the revolving ruins, the casino conservatory, are all beautiful sets, but the sensation of the evening was the wonderfully realistic collision of ocean steamships.

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON.

The Concert of the Grand Symphony Orchestra May 21.

Everybody is interested in and anticipating the rare musical treat in store for Toledo—the coming of the Damrosch orchestra. This is the only permanent orchestra in New York and consists of 65 artists. The full strength of the orchestra, with their popular and accomplished leader, will be at the Wheeler for one concert, Saturday evening, May 21. Adolph Brodsky, of Leipsig, concert master and solo violinist, secured by Conductor Damrosch, while he was in Europe last summer, has a world-wide reputation.

The celebrated soprano, Frl. Irene Pevny, from the Royal opera house, Munich, will come to Toledo with them. The estimation in which this musical organization is held in New York, is shown by the fact that an annual guarantee fund of $50,000 has been subscribed by well known capitalists of that city to insure the payment of regular salaries for the best talent Mr. Damrosch can find on both continents.

BEWARE.

An U. S. court has decreed Tough on Rats to be an infringement on the Rough on Rats trade mark, holding that the evident intent in changing the R to T in the word Rough was to benefit by, or through the popularity of Rough on Rats, which has been created at a large expenditure of money and enterprise, and that the similarity in the sound of the infringing title is calculated to deceive at least the illiterate public. The great majority of druggists are intelligent, honorable, upright men, but there are black sheep in every profession, who disgrace their calling. Beware when you ask or send a child for Rough on Rats, for destruction of rats, mice, cockroaches, flies, bedbugs, ants, etc. Examine the package. The substituting or deceiving dealer or peddler needs watching. See that you get the genuine Rough on Rats, and that Ephraim S. Wells, Jersey City, is on the label. Have suspicion of dealers and peddlers who try to substitute something else, said to be just the same or just as good. Rough on Rats has no equal, is sold all around the world, is the most extensively advertised and is the best known and has the largest sale of any article of its kind on the face of the globe, gives satisfaction to all manner of men.

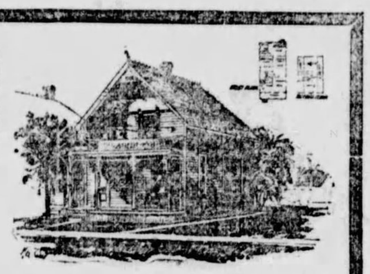
GREAT SPECIAL SALE OF LOTS

—IN—



WESTERN AVENUE ADDITION

WHERE WE WILL SELL CHOICE CITY LOTS AT PRICES WAY BELOW THE MARKET VALUE, AND ON TERMS THAT CANNOT FAIL TO SUIT THE SMALLEST POCKETBOOK.

DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY

Monday, May 16, 1892, Wednesday, May 18, 1892

SALE COMMENCES EACH DAY AT 2:30 P. M. ON THE GROUNDS, AND AT 7:30 P. M. AT OUR OFFICE.

OUR TERMS FOR THESE BEAUTIFUL LOTS ARE ONLY $10 CASH AND $5 PER MONTH With interest at 6 per cent. The owners have made a special effort to bring this property within the easy reach of the wage-earners, and have arranged to make it possible for them to buy as will be easiest for them, by paying, as they receive their wages, a little at a time; larger payments being allowed if desired. On such ridiculously low terms there is no reason in the world why any one wishing a home-site may not have one, except that we have but SIXTY-TWO lots in the Addition, ONE to be given away outright and SIXTY-ONE to be given away for $10, and $5 monthly payments. When you have paid for a lot on above terms, arrangements can be made to build you a home to be paid for on similar terms. You will not have another opportunity like this to procure a home, so join the great army of lot-owners and "prepare to reap a harvest of early sowing."

TOLEDO HAS GROWN To a point where her real estate is no longer in the hands of a few monopolists, or even of the wealthy class. Her tradesmen and clerks, artisans and laborers, all have an interest in her welfare. "The ownership of a home is no longer the luxury of the rich," as to-day there are none so poor but that they can buy one or more lots, and pay for them in easy payments. The present is one of the few opportunities offered to people of small means to obtain beautiful home-sites, and, in addition to this, at the same time to procure a profitable investment, one which to cash quickly at market price is to make 25 to 30 per cent., and to await the development of the market is to make immensely more.

$10.00 CASH

SECURES ONE OF THESE BEAUTIFUL LOTS!

$5 PER MONTH PAYS FOR A HOME.

Or to those who prefer, one-fourth cash, balance in three equal annual payments will be accepted.

WESTERN AVENUE ADDITION Is nicely located, fronting on Western Avenue, Miller, Gordon, Griffin and Anna Streets. The adjoining property has been closely built up, and this Addition is now nicely surrounded with neat and attractive homes, in the heart of a residence center, having extensive manufacturing, railroad and business interests near by.

THE LOTS

The lots in Western Avenue Addition are beautiful, large, inside city lots; the Addition is nicely laid out, and all lots have 30 or more feet of frontage, and a large number of them are 150 feet deep. All streets are broad and well graded. Shade trees are planted, and sewerage is in alley between Western Avenue and Gordon Streets. Two thousand feet of sidewalk are laid. New houses are now being erected, and many more will follow immediately after the sale.

We have a complete Abstract. An OPINION OF TITLE BY THE LENDERSON, LANG & STEWART ABSTRACT COMPANY, showing the property to be free from incumbrance, and all taxes and assessments paid to date, will be furnished each purchaser. Also WARRANTY DEED for lots purchased.

EXCELLENT STREET CAR ACCOMMODATIONS. The Western Avenue line of the Consolidated Street Car System passes this Addition, and the Robison System is but two blocks distant, making access to any part of the city convenient, and only ten minutes' ride to Monroe Street.

FREE TRANSPORTATION Will be furnished ALL attending sales by The Consolidated Western Avenue line of street cars. TICKETS GOOD FROM 1 TO 6 P. M. In going to the property, tickets will be taken on all Consolidated cars that pass Summit Street Transfer, where transfer to Western Avenue line will be furnished. Tickets must be punched on the grounds to be good for return trip. Transfer checks will also be furnished on return trip, without charge. Join your friends and take a free ride. All on the grounds who register their names, have a chance to secure a free lot. Free name-blanks, with car tickets attached good for these days, can be secured at our office, NO. 243 ST. CLAIR STREET, or at the CONSOLIDATED TRANSFER STATION.

THE IMPROVEMENT That has taken place in the surrounding property in the past 12 months serves as an indication of what will follow the coming sale. Fully 75 houses have been built within the past year within a short distance of this property.

A $250 LOT FREE. Lot No. 115, Western Avenue Addition, 30 feet front on Griffin Street, and 120 feet deep, will positively be given to the people attending the great sale and registering their names on Monday or Wednesday. To decide who shall be the owner of this lot, those attending the sale will elect some three persons from the people present, who will act as judges, and will take the tickets on which you have signed your names, place them in a box, draw out twenty-one (21) tickets, and the person whose name is written on the twenty-first ticket drawn shall receive a WARRANTY DEED to the lot. Remember it COSTS YOU NOTHING.

SAVE YOUR PIN MONEY By investing 16 cents a day in a lot, and before you realize it you will be better off by the price of one lot, which lot will earn money for you. The foundation of many a fortune is laid in the making of a single small investment, where advances are practically certain. Investments in SUCH PROPERTY as Western Avenue Addition, at SUCH PRICES, can not be picked up every day on your own terms.

5000 FAMILIES Are supported by employment furnished within one mile of Western Avenue Addition, insuring for this property an immediate development, and purchasers will be enabled to sell their lots in the near future, if they so desire, at a handsome profit.
